THE English Version of the New Testament here presented to the reader is a Revision of the Translation published in the year of Our Lord 1611, and commonly known by the name of the Authorised Version.

That Translation was the work of many hands and of several generations. The foundation was laid by William Tyndale. His translation of the New Testament was the true primary Version. The Versions that followed were either substantially reproductions of Tyndale's translation in its final shape, or revisions of Versions that had been themselves almost entirely based on it. Three successive stages may be recognised in this continuous work of authoritative revision: first, the publication of the Great Bible of 1539-41 in the reign of Henry VIII.; next, the publication of the Bishops' Bible of 1568 and 1572 in the reign of Elizabeth; and lastly, the publication of the King's Bible of 1611 in the reign of James I. Besides these, the Genevan Version of 1560, itself founded on Tyndale's translation, must here be named; which, though not put forth by authority, was widely circulated in this country, and largely used by King James' Translators. Thus the form in which the English New Testament has now been read for 270 years was the result of various revisions made between 1525 and 1611; and the present Revision is an attempt, after a long interval, to follow the example set by a succession of honoured predecessors.

I. Of the many points of interest connected with the Translation of 1611, two require special notice: first, the Greek Text which it appears to have represented; and secondly, the character of the Translation itself.

1. With regard to the Greek Text, it would appear that, if to some extent the Translators exercised an independent judgement, it was mainly in choosing amongst readings contained in the principal editions of the Greek Text that had appeared in the sixteenth century. Wherever they seem to have followed a reading which is not found in any of those editions, their rendering may probably be traced to the Latin Vulgate. Their chief guides appear to have been the later editions of Stephanus and of Beza, and also, to a certain extent, the Complutensian Polyglott. All these were founded for the most part on manuscripts of late date, few in number, and used with little critical skill. But in those days it could hardly have been otherwise. Nearly all the more ancient of the documentary authorities have become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed.

The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms:—‘The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops’ Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.' There was, however, this subsequent provision:—'These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops' Bible: Tindale's, Matthew's, Coverdale's, Whitchurch's, Geneva.' The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not, however, appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops' Bible. On the other hand, their work shews evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows:—'When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.' With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid:—'The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.' This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language; and they express a fear lest they should 'be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,' which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows:—'No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.' Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 760 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:—'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as high as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' The Translators had also the liberty, in 'any place of special obscurity,' to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labours; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February, 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June, 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Committees were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May, 1870, were as follows:—

‘1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

‘2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

‘3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

‘4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

‘5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May, 1870, were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter is provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume.* We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June, 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day: the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number, four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode, however, of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics. Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the First Revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the Second Revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorised Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either re-affirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not retranslation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are,—Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorised Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasing alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorised Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering, because we hensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars, we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the results of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated,—the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament,—all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870–73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference: but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

LIST OF READINGS AND RENDERINGS REFERRING TO GENERAL PASSAGES PREFERRED BY THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE, RECORDED AT THEIR DESIRE. (See Preface, page xii).

(The special readings and renderings are given in foot-notes.)

- I. Strike out "S." (i. e. Saint) from the title of the Gospels and from the heading of the pages.
- II. Strike out "the Apostle" from the title of the Pauline Epistles, and "of Paul the Apostle" from the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; strike out the word "General" from the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude; and let the title of the Revelation run "The Revelation of John."
- III. For "Holy Ghost" adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."
- IV. At the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc., add the marginal note "The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to man (see chap. xviii. 26) or to God (see chap. iv. 10)."
- V. Put into the text uniformly the marginal rendering "through" in place of "by" when it relates to prophecy, viz. in Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xiii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25.
- VI. For "tempt" ("temptation") substitute "try" or "make trial of" ("trial") wherever enticement to what is wrong is not evidently spoken of; viz. in the following instances: Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; xxii. 28; John viii. 6; Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9; Heb. iii. 8, 9; 1 Pet. i. 6.
- VII. Substitute modern forms of speech for the following archaisms, viz. "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons; "are" for "be" in the present indicative; "know" "knew" for "wot" "wist"; "drag" or "drag away" for "hale."
- VIII. Substitute for "devil" ("devils") the word "demon" ("demons") wherever the latter word is given in the margin (or represents the Greek words δαίμων δαιμόνιον); and for "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") substitute either "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons").
- IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, in" and the text "with" exchange places.
- X. Let the word "testament" be everywhere changed to "covenant" (without an alternate in the margin), except in Heb. ix. 15-17.
- XI. Wherever "patience" occurs as the rendering of ὑπομονή add "stodfastness" as an alternate in the margin, except in 2 Cor. i. 6; James v. 11; Luke viii. 15; Heb. xii. 1.
- XII. Let ἀσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6) be translated "penny," and δηνάριον "shilling," except in Matt. xxii. 29; Mark xii. 15; Luke xx. 24, where the name of the coin, "a denarius," should be given.
- XIII. Against the expression "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" add the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" etc.; viz. in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. i. 3; xi. 31; Eph. i. 3; Col. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3. And against the expression "our God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and our Father"; viz. in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; James i. 27. And against the expression "his God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and his Father," viz. in Rev. i. 6.
- XIV. Let the use of "fulfil" be confined to those cases in which it denotes "accomplish," "bring to pass," or the like.

THE GOSPEL

ACCORDING TO

S. MATTHEW.

1 ¹THE book of the ²generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. ¹ Or, The genealogy of Jesus Christ

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob: and ² Or, birth: as in ver. 18.

3 Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and Perez begat

4 Hezron; and Hezron begat ³Ram; and ³Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and ³ Gr. Aram.

5 Nahshon begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed

6 begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David the king.

And David begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and 7 Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat ⁴Asa; ⁴ Gr. Asaph.

8 and ⁴Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat

9 Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat

10 Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Ma-

Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the ⁶carrying away to Babylon.

12 And after the ⁶carrying away to Babylon. Jechoniah begat ⁷Shealtiel; and ⁷Shealtiel begat Zerubba- ⁶ Or, removal to Babylon

17 So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the ⁶carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations;

- 1 Or, removal to Babylon and from the ¹carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.
- 2 Or, generation: Now the ²birth ³of Jesus Christ was on this wise: 18 as in ver. 1. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with

But when he thought on these things, 20 behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is
- 5 Gr. begotten. ⁵conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she 21 shall bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. Now all this is come to pass, that it 22 might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall 23 bring forth a son, And they shall call his name ⁶Immanuel; which is, being interpreted, God with us. And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; and knew her not till she had brought forth a 25 son: and he called his name JESUS.
- 7 Gr. Magi. Compare Esther i. 13; Dan. ii. 12. Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa 2 in the days of Herod the king, behold, ⁷wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, ⁸Where is 2 he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And 3 when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together 4 all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: 5 for thus it is written ⁹by the prophet, And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, 6 Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: For out of thee shall come forth a governor, Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.
- 8 Or, Where is the King of the Jews that is born? Then Herod privily called the ⁷wise men, and learn- 7 ed of them carefully ¹⁰what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and 8 search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. And they, hav- 9 ing heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star,
- 10 Or, the time of the star that appeared

- which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.
- 10 And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
- 13 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.
- 14 And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call my son.
- 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ¹wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, ¹ Gr. Magi. and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the ¹wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken ²by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, ² Or, through
- 18 A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
And she would not be comforted, because they are not.
- 19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ²by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

And in those days cometh John the Baptist, 3 preaching in the wilderness of Judæa, saying, Re- 2 pent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. For 3 this is he that was spoken of ¹by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
 Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
 Make his paths straight.

Now John himself had his raiment of camel's hair, 4 and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food 5 was locusts and wild honey. Then went out unto 6 him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region 7 round about Jordan; and they were baptized of him 8 in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. But when 9 he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming 10 to his baptism*, he said unto them, Ye offspring of 11 vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to 12 come? Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of ²re- 13 pentance: and think not to say within yourselves, 14
 We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, 15 that God is able of these stones to raise up children 16 unto Abraham. And even now is the axe laid unto 17 the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bring- 18 eth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into 19 the fire. I indeed baptize you ³with water unto re- 20 pentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier 21 than I, whose shoes I am not ⁴worthy to bear: he 22 shall baptize you ⁵with the Holy Ghost and with fire: 23 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly 24 cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his 25 wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up 26 with unquenchable fire.

² Or, your repentance

³ Or, in

⁴ Gr. sufficient.

Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan 13 unto John, to be baptized of him. But John would 14 have hindered him, saying, I have need to be bap- 15 tized of thee, and comest thou to me? But Jesus 16 answering said unto him, Suffer ⁵it now: for thus it 17 becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he 18 suffereth him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, 19 went up straightway from the water: and lo, the 20 heavens were opened ⁶unto him, and he saw the 21 Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming 22
 upon him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, say- 23
 ing, ⁷This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well 24 pleased.

⁵ Or, me

⁶ Some ancient authorities omit unto him.

⁷ Or, This is my Son; my beloved in whom I am well pleased. See ch. xii. 18.

* Against "to his baptism" add marg. Or, for baptism—Am. Com.

4 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward
 3 hungered. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these 4 stones become bread. But he answered and said, ^{1 Gr. loaves.} It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of 5 God. Then the devil taketh him into the holy city;
 6 and he set him on the ²pinnacle of the temple, and ^{2 Gr. wing.} saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:
 And on their hands they shall bear thee up,
 Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt 8 not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory 9 of them; and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.
 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy 11 God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.
 12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he 13 withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, 14 in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ³by Isaiah the ^{3 Or, through} prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, Toward the sea, beyond Jordan,
 Galilee of the ⁴Gentiles, 16 The people which sat in darkness
 Saw a great light,
 And to them which sat in the region and shadow of death,
 To them did light spring up.

⁴ Gr. The way of the sea.

⁵ Gr. nations: and so elsewhere.

17 From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
 18 And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were 19 fishers. And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. And they 20 straightway left the nets, and followed him. And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them.

 And there followed him great multitudes from Gal- ²⁵ ilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from beyond Jordan.

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into the ⁵ mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth and taught ² them, saying:

 kingdom of heaven.

 pose ver. 4 and 5.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the ⁵ earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after right- ⁶ cousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain ⁷ mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. ⁸

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be ⁹ called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for ¹⁰ righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall reproach ¹¹ you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be ¹² exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven:
 for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have ¹³ lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light ¹⁴ of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid.
 Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the ¹⁵ bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that 16 are in the house. Even so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the 18 prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away 19 from the law, till all things be accomplished. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the 20 kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill 22 shall be in danger of the judgement: but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother¹ shall be in danger of the judgement; and whosoever shall say to his brother, ²Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, ³Thou fool, 23 shall be in danger ⁴of the ⁵hell of fire. If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, 24 leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and 25 offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge ⁶deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast 26 into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

27 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not 28 commit adultery: but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy ment: but I say unto you, that every one that put- 32 teth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.

Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of 33 old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto 34 you, Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is 35
the footstool of his feet; nor ¹by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou 36 swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. ²But let your speech be, Yea, 37 yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of ³the evil one.

³ Or, evil: as in ver. 39; vi. 13.

Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, 38 and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, Resist 39 not ⁴him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And 40 if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. And 41 whosoever shall ⁵compel thee to go one mile, go with him twain. Give to him that asketh thee, and 42 from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

⁶ That is, collectors or renters of Roman taxes: and so elsewhere.

Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love 43 thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy: but I say unto 44 you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father 45 which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For if ye love them that love 46 you, what reward have ye? do not even the ⁶publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, 47 what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as 48 your heavenly Father is perfect.

Take heed that ye do not your righteousness be- 6 fore men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.

When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a 2 trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not 3 thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that 4 thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

- 5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They 6 have received their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee. And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be 7 heard for their much speaking. Be not therefore like unto them: for ¹your Father knoweth what 8 things ye have need of, before ye ²ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which 9 art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on 10 earth. Give us this day ³our daily bread*. And 11 forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our 12 debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from ⁴the evil one.⁴ For if ye forgive men 13 their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, 14 neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
15 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say 16 unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash 17 thy face; that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.
18 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust doth consume, and where 19 thieves ⁵break through and steal: but lay up for 20 yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not
21 ⁶break through nor steal: for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole
22 body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great 23 is the darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other.

¹ Some ancient authorities read God your Father.

² Gr. our bread for the coming day.

³ Or, evil

⁴ Many authorities, some ancient, but with variations, add For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

⁵ Gr. dig through.

* Let the marg. read Gr. our bread for the coming day, or our needful bread. So in Luke xi. 3.—Am. Com.

Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I 25 say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Be- 26 hold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by 27 being anxious can add one cubit unto his 'stature*?
 And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Con- 28
 sider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto you, that 29 even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of 30 the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What 31 shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these 32 things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
 But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; 33 and all these things shall be added unto you. Be 34 not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with 7 what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and 2 with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you. And why beholdest thou the mote that 3 is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to 4 thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? Thou 5 16 By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather 17 grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring 19 forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not 21 every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter

22 will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not proph-

26 founded upon the rock. And every one that heareth floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon

 34 the tree is known by its fruit. Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his 35 evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.
 36 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, ^{1 Or, Teacher} Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign 37 of Jonah the prophet: for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ^{2 Gr. sea-monster.} whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^{3 Gr. more than.} a greater than Jonah is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^{4 Or, it} a greater than Solomon is here. But the unclean spirit, when ^{5 Or, itself} he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. Then ^{6 Some ancient authorities omit ver. 47.} he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.
 38 While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. ⁶ And one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold, 39 my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

On that day went Jesus out of the house, and sat 13
 by the sea side. And there were gathered unto him 2 great multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. And 3 he spake to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he 4 sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the 5 rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, 6
 they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And others fell upon the 7 thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them:
 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded 8
 fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
 He that hath ears¹, let him hear. 9

¹ Some ancient authorities add here, and in ver. 43, to hear: as in Mark iv. 9; Luke viii. 8.

And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why 10 speakest thou unto them in parables? And he an- 11 swered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to 12 him shall be given, and he shall have abundance:
 but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. Therefore speak I 13 to them in parables; because seeing they see not,
 and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of 14
 Isaiah, which saith,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

For this people's heart is waxed gross, 15

And their ears are dull of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,

And hear with their ears,

And understand with their heart,

And should turn again,

And I should heal them.

But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your 16 ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, that 17 many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. Hear 18 then ye the parable of the sower. When any one 19 heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he 20 that was sown by the way side. And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth 21 the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because 22 of the word, straightway he stumbleth. And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of the ¹world, and the de-ceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he be-23 cometh unfruitful. And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed
 25 good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed ²tares also among the wheat, ² Or, darnel 26 and went away. But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.
 27 And the ³servants of the householder came and said ³ Gr. bondservants.
 28 unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? And he said unto them, ⁴An enemy hath done this. And the ³servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather 29 them up? But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them.
 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:
 32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three ⁵measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ⁶by the prophet, saying,

⁵ The word in the Greek denotes the Hebrew seah, a measure containing nearly a peck and a half.

⁶ Or, through

I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

Then he left the multitudes, and went into the ³⁶ house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. And he answered and said, He that soweth the good ³⁷ seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; ³⁸ and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; and the ³⁹ enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is ²the end of the world; and the reapers are angels.

² Or, the consummation of the age

As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned ⁴⁰ with fire; so shall it be in ²the end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they ⁴¹ shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, and shall cast ⁴² them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the ⁴³ righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure ⁴⁴ hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; ³and in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

³ Or, for joy thereof

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man ⁴⁵ that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold ⁴⁶ all that he had, and bought it.

⁴ Gr. drag-net.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a ⁴⁷ net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on ⁴⁸ the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. So ⁴⁹ shall it be in ²the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of ⁵⁰ fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Have ye understood all these things? They say ⁵¹ unto him, Yea. And he said unto them, Therefore ⁵² every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished ⁵³ these parables, he departed thence. And coming ⁵⁴ into his own country he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these 55 'mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, 56 James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then 57 hath this man all these things? And they were 2offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own 58 country, and in his own house. And he did not many 'mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 At that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, and said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him. For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod. Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she should ask. And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here in a charger the head of John the Baptist. And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he commanded it to be given; and he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, they followed him ^{3on} 3 Or, by land 14 foot from the cities. And he came forth, and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food. But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. And he said, Bring 18 them hither to me. And he commanded the multi- 19 tudes to 'sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.

And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took 20 up that which remained over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And they that did eat were 21 about five thousand men, beside women and children.

And straightway he constrained the disciples to 22 enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away.

And after he had sent the multitudes away, he went 23 was come, he was there alone. But the boat ²was 24 now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves;

for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth 25 watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea. And when the disciples saw him 26 walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is an apparition; and they cried out for fear. But 27 straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter an- 28

swered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me walked upon the waters, ³to come to Jesus. But 30 him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

And when they had crossed over, they came to 34

21 And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the

22 parts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaan-is not meet to take the children's ⁷bread and cast it ⁷ Or, loaf dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O 28 woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto 29
the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. And there came unto him great 30.
multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the 31 multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.

And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, 32
I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way. And the disciples 33 say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place, as to fill so great a multitude? And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves 34 have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit 35 down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves 36 and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they did all eat, and were filled: and 37 they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. And they that did eat 38 were four thousand men, beside women and chil-

And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and 16 tempting him asked him to shew them a sign from heaven. But he answered and said unto them, 2
When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be 3 foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowrevil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

And the disciples came to the other side and for- 5

- 7 Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves,
- 8 saying, ²We took no ¹bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among

- 11 how many baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning
- 12 ¹bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of ¹bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- 13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men
- 14 say ⁴that the Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah: and others, Jer-
- 15 emiah, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them,
- 16 But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the
- 17 living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my
- 18 Father which is in heaven. And I also say unto thee, that thou art ⁵Peter, and upon this ⁶rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not
- 19 prevail against it. I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in

- 21 From that time began ⁷Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.
- 22 And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, ⁸Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, 17 and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he was trans- 2 figured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light.
And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and 3 Elijah talking with him. And Peter answered, and 4 said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three ³tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud 5 overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. And when the dis- 6 ciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them and said, 7 Arise, and be not afraid. And lifting up their eyes, 8 they saw no one, save Jesus only.

And as they were coming down from the moun- 9 tain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why 10 then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?
And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, 11 and shall restore all things: but I say unto you, that 12 Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them. Then under- 13 stood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

And when they were come to the multitude, there 14 came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, into the fire, and oft-times into the water. And I 16 brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless 17

you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him

 30 And he called to him a little child, and set him in

 Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye

 32 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the ⁷greatest in the kingdom 33 of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little 34 child in my name receiveth me: but whoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that ⁸a great mill-

 35 should be sunk in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to 36 that man through whom the occasion cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it 9 out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire. See that ye 10 despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.² How 12 think ye? if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? Even so it is not ³the will of ⁴your 14 Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

And if thy brother sin ⁵against thee, go, shew him 15 his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he hear 16 thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it 17 unto the ⁶church; and if he refuse to hear the ⁶church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican. Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye 18 shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two 19 of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three 20 are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft 21 shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not 22 unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until ⁷seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven 23 likened unto a certain king, which would make a reckoning with his ⁸servants. And when he had 24 begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ⁹talents. But forasmuch as 25 he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.  and saith to him, Thou wicked 'servant, I forgave

19 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the tudes followed him; and he healed them there.

Then were there brought unto him little children, 13 that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer 14 the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is* the kingdom of heaven. And he 15 laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

And behold, one came to him and said, ¹²Master, 16 what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, ³Why askest thou me 17 concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? 18 And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy 19 mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these 20 things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus 21 said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But 22 when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say 23 unto you, It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It 24 is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And when the disciples heard it, they were 25 astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them said to them, 26 With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto 27 him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? And Jesus said unto them, 28 Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And as they went out from Jericho, a great mul- 29 titude followed him. And behold, two blind men 30 sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And the multitude re- 31 buked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And Jesus stood still, 32 and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you? They say unto him, Lord, 33 that our eyes may be opened. And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and 21 came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go 2 into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And upon a colt the foal of an ass.
- 6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus ap-7 pointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon.
- 8 And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from 9 the trees, and spread them in the way. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna 10 in the highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this?
11 And the multitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.
- 12 And Jesus entered into the temple ²of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, 13 and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he saith unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of 14 robbers. And the blind and the lame came to him 15 in the temple: and he healed them. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son 16 of David; they were moved with indignation, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying?
And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read,
Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast 17 perfected praise? And he left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.
- 18 Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he 19 hungered. And seeing ³a fig tree by the way side, ³ Or, a single he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the 20 fig tree withered away. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree 21 immediately wither away? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as a prophet. And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in the vineyard. And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented himself, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.

Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, to receive his fruits. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance.  46 he spake of them. And when they sought to lay hold on him, they feared the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.

22 And Jesus answered and spake again in parables
 2 unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast
 3 for his son, and sent forth his ²servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they 4 would not come. Again he sent forth other ²servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to 5 the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his 6 merchandise: and the rest laid hold on his ²servants, and entreated them shamefully, and killed them.
 7 But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their 8 city. Then saith he to his ²servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy.
 9 Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage

 11 filled with guests. But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man which had

Now there were 25 with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; in like manner the second also, and the 26 third, unto the ⁶seventh. And after them all the 27 woman died. In the resurrection therefore whose 28 wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, 29 not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

6 Gr. seven.

For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are 30 given in marriage, but are as angels⁷ in heaven. But 31 as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of 32 Isaac, and the God of Jacob? plied, the love of the many shall wax cold. But he 13 that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.
 And ¹this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached 14 in the whole ²world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

When therefore ye see the abomination of desola- 15
 tion, which was spoken of ³by Daniel the prophet, standing in ⁴the holy place (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto 16 the mountains: let him that is on the housetop not 17 go down to take out the things that are in his house:
 and let him that is in the field not return back to 18 take his cloke. But woe unto them that are with 19 child and to them that give suck in those days! And 20 pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: for then shall be great tribulation, 21 such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. And except 22 those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say unto you, 23 Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe ⁵it not. For 24 there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I 25 have told you beforehand. If therefore they shall 26 say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe ⁶it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the 27 east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the ⁷coming of the Son of man. Wheresoever the car- 28 case is, there will the ⁸eagles be gathered together.

But immediately, after the tribulation of those 29 days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
 and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in 30 heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
 And he shall send forth his angels ⁹with ¹⁰a great 31 sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her 32

 when they took their ⁸lamps, took no oil with them:

 Give us of your oil; for our ⁸lamps are going out.

But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there 9 they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the mar-

Now after a long time the lord of those ¹servants 19 unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five

31 But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the

 36 and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and 37 ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, 38 and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or

 45 unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not 46 unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me. And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all 2 these words, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the 3 Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people. 4 5

Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman having ¹an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as he sat at meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. Now on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The ⁴Master saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; and they made ready the passover. Now when even was come, he was sitting at meat with the twelve disciples; and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. a third time, saying again the same words. Then 45 cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed unto the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: behold, he 46 is at hand that betrayeth me.

And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the 47 twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them 48 a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he:
take him. And straightway he came to Jesus, and 49 said, Hail, Rabbi; and ¹kissed him. And Jesus said 50 unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come.
Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And behold, one of them that were with Jesus 51 stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and smote the ²servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again 52 thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Or thinkest thou 53 that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?
How then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus 54 it must be? In that hour said Jesus to the multi- 55 tudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took me not. But all this 56 is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

And they that had taken Jesus led him away to 57
the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. But 58 Peter followed him afar off, unto the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the end. Now the chief priests and the whole 59 council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death; and they found it not, 60 though many false witnesses came. But afterward came two, and said, This man said, I am able to de- 61 stroy the ³temple of God, and to build it in three days. And the high priest stood up, and said unto 62 him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus held his peace. 63
And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou 64

65 Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? They answered and said, 67 He is ¹worthy of death. Then did they spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote him ²with the palms of their hands, saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

69 Now Peter was sitting without in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilæan. But he denied before them all,
71 saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus the Nazarene. And again he denied 73 with an oath, I know not the man. And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; for thy speech 74 bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway the 75 cock crew. And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against
2 Jesus to put him to death: and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, which betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief
4 priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed ³innocent blood. But they said, What is that

Then saith Pilate unto 13 him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? And he gave him no answer, not even 14 to one word: insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. Now at ³the feast the governor was wont 15 to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom ⁴they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, 16 called Barabbas. When therefore they were gath- 17 ered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they 18 had delivered him up. And while he was sitting 19 on the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. Now the chief priests and 20 the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the gov- 21 ernor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What then 22 shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. And he said, Why, 23 what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. So when Pilate 24 saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent ⁴of the blood of this righteous man: see ye to it. And all the people answered and said, His blood be 25 on us, and on our children. Then released he unto 26 them Barabbas: but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into 27 the ⁵palace*, and gathered unto him the whole ⁶band. And they ⁷stripped him, and put on him a scarlet 28 robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and put 29 it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, him, and took the reed and smote him on the head.

31 And when they had mocked him, they took off from

they set up over his head his accusation written, after his resurrection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and 54 they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was ¹the Son of God. And many women were 55 there beholding from afar, which had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: among 56 whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

And when even was come, there came a rich man 57 from Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: this man went to Pilate, and 58 asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. And Joseph took the body, 59 and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in 60 his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. And Mary Magdalene was 61 there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

Now on the morrow, which is the day after the 62 Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remem- 63 ber that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again. Command therefore 64 that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate 65 said unto them, ²Ye have a guard: go your way, ³make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made 66 the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn 28 toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And 2 behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the watchers did quake, 3 and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know 4 that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified. He 5 is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, 6 see the place ⁴where the Lord lay. And go quickly, 7 and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this ¹ come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth until this day.

But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you ²alway, even unto ³the end of the world.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, ¹the 1
Son of God.

Even as it is written ²in Isaiah the prophet, 2

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way;

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 3

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight;

John came, who baptized in the wilderness and 4 preached the baptism of repentance unto remission 5 of sins. And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, 6 and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. And he preached, saying, 7

There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ³worthy to stoop down and unloose. I baptized you ⁴with water; 8

but he shall baptize you ⁴with the ⁵Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus 9

came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ⁶in the Jordan. And straightway coming up 10 out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: and a 11

voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved

Son, in thee I am well pleased.

And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into 12

the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty 13 days tempted of Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came 14

into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and say- 15

ing, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

16 And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a 17 net in the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make 18 you to become fishers of men. And straightway 19 they left the nets, and followed him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending 20 the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue 22 and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and 23 not as the scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and 24 he cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of 25 God. And Jesus rebuked ¹him, saying, Hold thy ¹Or, it 26 peace, and come out of him. And the unclean spirit, it, ²tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came ²Or, convulsing 27 out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey 28 him. And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

29 And straightway, ³when they were come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon
30 and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway 31 they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were ⁴pos- ⁴Or, demoniacs 33 sessed with devils. And all the city was gathered 34 together at the door. And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many ⁵Gr. demons.
⁵devils; and he suffered not the ⁵devils to speak, because they knew him⁶.

35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert 36 place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that were with him followed after him; and they found 37 him, and say unto him, All are seeking thee. And 38 he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth. And he went into their syna- 39 gogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out ¹devils.

² Some ancient authorities omit and kneeling down to him.

And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, 40 ²and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And be- 41 ing moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy 42 departed from him, and he was made clean. And 43 he ³strictly charged him, and straightway sent him out, and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any 44 man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he went 45 out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the ⁴matter, insomuch that ⁵Jesus could no more openly enter into ⁶a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

And 3 they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy, borne of four. And when they could not 4 ⁸come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed* whereon the sick of the palsy lay. And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto 5 the sick of the palsy, ⁹Son, thy sins are forgiven. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, 6 and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man 7 thus speak? he blasphemeth: who can forgive sins but one, even God? 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his

Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with

2 Gr. Arise into the midst. And he entered again into the synagogue; and 3 there was a man there which had his hand withered. And they watched him, whether he would 2 heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man that had 3 his hand withered, ²Stand forth. And he saith 4 unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked 5 round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth: and his hand was restored. And the Pharisees went 6 out, and straightway with the Heredians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

3 Or, all the things that he did And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: 7 and a great multitude from Galilee followed: and from Judæa, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, 8 and beyond Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing ²what great things he did, came unto him. And he spake to his disciples, that 9 a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng him: for he had 10 healed many; insomuch that as many as had 4 plagues 5 pressed upon him that they might touch him. And the unclean spirits, whensoever they be- 11 held him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he charged them 12 much that they should not make him known.

And when his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, ²By ²Or, In the prince of the ³devils casteth he out the ³devils. ³Gr. demons.
 23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him.
 32 And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? And looking round on them which sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 And again he began to teach by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land.
 2 And he taught them many things in parables, and 3 said unto them in his teaching, Hearken: Behold, 4 the sower went forth to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the 5 birds came and devoured it. And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deep-6 ness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. And other fell among the thorns, and the 7 thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And others fell into the good ground, and 8 yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. And he said, Who hath ears to hear, let 9 him hear.

And when he was alone, they that were about 10
 him with the twelve asked of him the parables.
 And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mys- 11 tery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables: that 12 seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them.
 And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? 13 and how shall ye know all the parables? The sow- 14 er soweth the word. And these are they by the way 15 side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. And 16 these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy; and they 17 have no root in themselves, but endure for a while;
 then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. And others 18 are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, and the cares of the 19 ¹ world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And those are they that were 20 sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixty-fold, and a hundredfold.

And he said unto them, Is the lamp brought to be 21 put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to made secret, but that it should come to light. If 23 any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he 24 said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to 25 him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a 26 man should cast seed upon the earth; and should 27 sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should 28 spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth ¹beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then ¹Or, yieldeth 29 the ear, then the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit ²is ripe, straightway he ³putteth forth the sickle, ²Or, alloweth

30 And he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of 31 God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? ⁴It ⁴Gr. As unto is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the 32 seeds that are upon the earth, yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word 34 unto them, as they were able to hear it: and without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 And on that day, when even was come, he saith 36 unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were 37 with him. And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the 38 boat was now filling. And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, ⁵Master, carest thou not that we ⁵Or, Teacher 39 perish? And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind 40 ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet 41 faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 And they came to the other side of the sea, into the 2 country of the Gerasenes. And when he was come out of the boat, straightway there met him out of 3 the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more 4 bind him, no, not with a chain; because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to 5 tame him. And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cut-6 ting himself with stones. And when he saw Jesus 7 from afar, he ran and worshipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. For he said 8 unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. And he asked him, What is thy name? 9 And he saith unto him, My name is Legion; for we are many. And he besought him much that he 10 would not send them away out of the country. Now 11 there was there on the mountain side a great herd of swine feeding. And they besought him, saying, 12 Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And he gave them leave. And the unclean 13 spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, in number about two thousand; and they were choked in the sea. And they that fed them fled, and told it in 14 the city, and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. And they 15 come to Jesus, and behold ¹him that was possessed with devils sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him that had the legion: and they were afraid. And they that saw it declared unto them how it be- 16 fell ¹him that was possessed with devils, and concerning the swine. And they began to beseech him 17 to depart from their borders. And as he was entering 18 into the boat, he that had been possessed with ²devils besought him that he might be with him. And 19 he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy on thee. And he went his way, and began 20 to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

And when Jesus had crossed over again in the 21 boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him: and he was by the sea. And there 22 cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jaïrus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, and 23 beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be ³made whole, and live. And he went with him; and a 24 great multitude followed him, and they thronged him.

 him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, 31 and said, Who touched my garments? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude

 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done 33 this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell 35 While he yet spake, they come from the ruler of Jesus, ⁵not heeding the word spoken, saith unto the ⁵Or, overhearing 37 ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe. And he suffered no man to follow with him, save Peter, 38 and James, and John the brother of James. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and 39 wailing greatly. And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep?

 40 the child is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laugh-taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the 41 child was. And taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being in-42 terpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise. And straightway the damsel rose up, and walked; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed 43 straightway with a great amazement. And he

And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had 14 become known: and ⁷he said, John ⁸the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him. But others said, It is Elijah. And 15 others said, It is a prophet, even as one of the prophets. But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, 16 whom I beheaded, he is risen. For Herod himself 17 had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John 18 said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. And Herodias set herself against 19 him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a 20 righteous man and a holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he ⁹was much perplexed; and he heard him gladly. And when a convenient day 21 was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, and the ¹⁰high captains, and the chief men of Galilee; and when ¹¹the daughter of 22 Herodias herself came in and danced, ¹²she pleased

24 And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John ^{1 Gr. the Baptizer.} the Baptist. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me in a charger the head of John ¹the Baptist. And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat

27 at meat, he would not reject her. And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they

to heaven, he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. And they did all eat, and were filled. And they took up broken pieces, twelve basketfuls, and also of the fishes. And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men.

And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. And after he had taken leave of them, he departed into the mountain to pray. And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was an apparition, and cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; for they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

And when they had ¹crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people knew him, and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And wheresoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched ²him were made whole.

And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their ³6 bread with ⁴defiled hands?  And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; 29

And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, 31 and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And 32 they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to lay his hand upon him. And he took him aside from 33 the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue; and look- 34 ing up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Eph-spake plain. And he charged them that they should 36 tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. And they 37

 his disciples, and saith unto them, I have compassion 2 on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send 3 them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far. And 4 his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with ⁴bread here in a desert place?
 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And 5 they said, Seven. And he commandeth the multi- 6 tude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. And they had a few 7 small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. And they did eat, 8 and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven baskets. And they were 9

10 about four thousand: and he sent them away. And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned one with another, ¹saying, ²We have no bread. And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread?

19 When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many ³baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among the four thousand, how many ³basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And they say unto him, Seven. And he said unto them, Do ye not yet understand?

22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him.

23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught? And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly. And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.

27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. But he 33 turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. And he called unto him the multitude with 34 his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever would save 35 his ¹life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his ¹life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. For 36 what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his ¹life? For what should a man give 37 in exchange for his ¹life? For whosoever shall be 38 ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. And he said unto 9 them, Verily I say unto you, There be some here of them that stand by, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, 2 and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them: and his garments became 3 glistening, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. And there appeared unto them 4 Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, Rabbi, it 5 is good for us to be here: and let us make three ²tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. And suddenly looking round about, they saw 8 no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; 11 and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

And on the morrow, when they were come out 12 from Bethany, he hungered. And seeing a fig tree 13 afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. And he answered and said unto it, No man 14 eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into 15 the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he would not suffer that 16 any man should carry a vessel through the temple.
 And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, 17
 My house shall be called a house of prayer for all sought how they might destroy him: for they feared

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders; and they said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one ²question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, say-

12 And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a ⁵servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another ⁵servant; and him they wounded in the head, and handled shamefully. And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And they took him, and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. Have ye not read even this scripture;

And when they were come, they say unto him, ¹Master, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's. And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

And there come unto him Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, ¹Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; ye do greatly err.

And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? Jesus answered, The first is, 29

 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, ³Master, ³Or, Teacher thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none 33 other but he: and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is much more 34 than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.
 35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son

And as he sat on the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. Many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and shall lead many astray. And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. And the gospel must first be preached unto all the nations. And when they lead you to judgement, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost. And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and ¹cause them to be put to death. But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! And pray ye that it be not in the winter. For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?
4 and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled
5 back: for it was exceeding great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.
6 And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they
7 laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, 8 as he said unto you. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9 ²Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from 10 whom he had cast out seven ³devils. She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned

And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven 14 themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye 15 into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be 16 saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: in my 17 name shall they cast out ¹devils; they shall speak with ²new tongues; they shall take up serpents, and 18 if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto 19 them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, and 20 preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

5 THERE was in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abi-appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great ¹⁵ in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor ¹strong drink; and he shall be filled with the ²Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many ¹⁶ of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. And he shall ³go before his face in the ¹⁷spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. And Zacharias ¹⁸said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife ⁴well stricken in years. And the angel answering said unto him, I ¹⁹am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. And behold, thou shalt be silent and ²⁰not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And ²¹the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled ⁵while he tarried in the ⁶temple. And it came to pass, when the ²³days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; ²⁴and she hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath ²⁵the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent ²⁶from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to ²⁷a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And Mary abode with her about three months, 56

Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should 57

 her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy toward her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass on the eighth 59 day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and 60 said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And 61 they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs 62 to his father, what he would have him called. And 63 he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his 64 mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. And fear came 65 on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa. And all that heard them laid 66 them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy 67
 Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilder- ³ words of Isaiah the prophet,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.
Every valley shall be filled, ⁵ And every mountain and hill shall be brought forth therefore fruits worthy of ³repentance, and be-

Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed ⁵ upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; and he saw two ² boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And ³ he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto ⁴ Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, ⁵ Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they ⁶ had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But ⁸ Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. - 12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
- 13 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway

- 18 the power of the Lord was with him ²to heal. And behold, men bring on a bed a man that was palsied: and they sought to bring him in, and to lay him be-

And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But Jesus perceiving their reasonings, answered and said

And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude of publicans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. And ¹the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole have no need of a physieian; but they that are sick. I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. And they said unto him, The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink. And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the sons of 34 the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then will they fast in those days. And he spake also a parable unto 36 them; No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. And no man putteth new wine into 37 old ²wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins. 38 And no man having drunk old wine desireth new: 39 for he saith, The old is ³good.

Now it came to pass on a ⁴sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. But certain of the Pharisees said, 2 Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? And Jesus answering them said, Have 3 ye not read even this, what David did, when he was an hungred, he, and they that were with him; how 4 he entered into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? And he said unto them, The Son of 5 man is lord of the sabbath.

And it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. And 7 the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse him. And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: The sower went forth to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. And other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And his disciples asked him what this parable might be. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. And those on the rock are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may see the light.  said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats. And into whatsoever house
 5 ye enter, there abide, and thence depart. And as many as receive you not, when ye depart from that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen from the 8 dead; and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen 9 again. And Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done. And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called 11 Bethsaida. But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had 12 need of healing he healed. And the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals*: for we are here in a desert

them ¹sit down in companies, about fifty each. And they did so, and made them all ¹sit down. 15 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and 16 looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was 17 taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

And it came to pass, as he was praying alone*, 18 the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? And 19 they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again. And he said unto them, But who 20 say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, The Christ of God. But he charged them, and com- 21 manded them to tell this to no man; saying, The 22 Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. And 23 he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever would save his 24 ²life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his ²life for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a 25 man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self? For whosoever shall be 26 ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. But I tell you of a truth, There be some of 27 them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

And it came to pass about eight days after these 28 sayings, he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the fashion of his counte- 29 nance was altered, and his raiment became white and dazzling. And behold, there talked with him 30 two men, which were Moses and Elijah; who ap- 31 peared in glory, and spake of his ³decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now 32 Peter and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: but ⁴when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, 33

- Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three ¹tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.
- 35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is ²my Son, my chosen: hear ye him. And when the voice ³came, Jesus was found alone. And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.
- 37 And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, ⁴Master, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it ⁵teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely.
- 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. And as he was yet a coming, the ⁶devil ⁷ dashed him down, and ⁸tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And they were all astonished at the majesty of God.
- But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, Let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.
- 46 And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be ⁹greatest*. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is ¹⁰least among you all, the same is great.
- 49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out ¹¹devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. But Jesus

But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad the kingdom of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house. Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho: and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine: and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetous-spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he 17 reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? And 18 take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. But God said 20 unto him, Thou foolish one, this night ⁸is thy ⁷soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be? So is he that layeth 21 up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say 22 unto you, Be not anxious for your ⁹life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. For the ⁹life is more than the food, and the 23 body than the raiment. Consider the ravens, that 24 they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the birds! And which 25 of you by being anxious can add a cubit unto his ¹⁰stature? If then ye are not able to do even that 26 which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the 27 rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one 28 of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, O ye of 29 little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek 31 of these things. Howbeit seek ye ¹his kingdom, and 32 these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give 33 you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no 34 thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

 35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knock-37 eth, they may straightway open unto him. Blessed are those ²servants, whom the lord when he cometh

6 And he spake this parable; A certain man had a unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on in which men ought to work: in them therefore

18 He said therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of 7 And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the 8 chief seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, ¹sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man 9 than thou be bidden of him, and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take 10 the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee. For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest haply they also bid thee again, and 13 a recompense be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the 14 blind: and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he 16 that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; 17 and he bade many: and he sent forth his ²servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; 18 for all things are now ready. And the ²servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his ²servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither 22 the poor and maimed and blind and lame. Now there went with him great multitudes: and he 25 turned, and said unto them, If any man cometh unto 26 me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whoso- 27 ever doth not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring 28 to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and 29 is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not 30 able to finish. Or what king, as he goeth to encoun- 31 ter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thou- 32 sand? Thou knowest 20 the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother. And he said, All these 21 things have I observed from my youth up. And 22 when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: sell all that thou hast, and distrib- 23 ute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when he heard 24 these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. And Jesus seeing him said, How 25 hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to 26 enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, 34 shall rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them.

 and they perceived not the things that were said.
- 35 And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side beg-36 ging: and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired 37 what this meant. And they told him, that Jesus of 38 Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Jesus, 39 thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, 40 Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: 41 and when he was come near, he asked him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, 42 Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath ⁴made ⁴ Or, saved thee 43 thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.
- 19 And he entered and was passing through Jeri-2 cho. And behold, a man called by name Zacchæ-us; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich.
 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature.
 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a syco-more tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.
 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come 6 down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A

And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. And ⁴another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked ³servant.

Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow; then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and ⁵I at my coming should have required it with interest? And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.  31 him. And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him.
- 32 And they that were sent went away, and found even 33 as he had said unto them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why 34 loose ye the colt? And they said, The Lord hath 35 need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set 36 Jesus thereon. And as he went, they spread their 37 garments in the way. And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of the mount of Olives, the

And he entered into the temple, and began to cast 45 out them that sold, saying unto them, It is written, 46
And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.

And he was teaching daily in the temple. But 47
the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him: and they 48 could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

And it came to pass, on one of the days, as he 20 was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders; and they spake, say- 2 ing unto him, Tell us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And he answered and said unto them, I 3 also will ask you a 'question; and tell me: The 4 baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?
And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we 5 shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; all 6 the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet. And they answered, that they 7 knew not whence it was. And Jesus said unto 8 them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

And he began to speak unto the people this par- 9 able: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for a long time. And at the season he sent unto the 10 husbandmen a ²servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. And he sent 11 yet another ²servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
And he sent yet a third: and him also they wound- 12 ed, and cast him forth. And the lord of the vine- 13 yard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him. But when 14 the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. And they cast 15 him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him.
What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? He will come and destroy these hus- 16 bandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.
And when they heard it, they said, ³God forbid.
But he looked upon them, and said, What then is 17

19 And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake this 20 parable against them. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the rule* and to the au-

25 And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

26 And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they which say that there is no resurrection; and

27 they asked him, saying, 'Master, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife,

28 and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife,

29 and died childless; and the second; and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no chil-

33 given in marriage: for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are

David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his 44 son?

And in the hearing of all the people he said unto 45 his disciples, Beware of the scribes, which desire to 46 walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; which devour widows' houses, 47 and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

And as some spake of the temple, how it was 5 adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will 6 come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And 7 they asked him, saying, 'Master, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? And he 8 said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them. And when 9 ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against 10 nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there 11 shall be great earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors

But before all these things, they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, ¹ bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. It shall turn unto you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay.
- 16 But ye shall be delivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends: and some of you ² shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. And not a hair of your head shall perish. In your patience ye shall win your ³ souls.
- 20 But when ye see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that her desolation is at hand. Then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter there-22 in. For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. Woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress upon 24 the ⁴ land, and wrath unto this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led captive into all the nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the 25 Gentiles be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the 26 sea and the billows; men ⁵ fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on ⁶ the world: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And every day he was teaching in the temple; and 37

And the day of unleavened bread came, on which 7 the passover must be sacrificed. And he sent Peter 8

 28 that serveth. But ye are they which have continued 29 with me in my temptations; and ⁶I appoint unto you a

And he came out, and went, as his custom was, 39 unto the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he 40 said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he was parted from them about a stone's 41 cast; and he kneeled down and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. ¹And 43 there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he 44 prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground. While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he 47 that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. And Pilate called together the chief priests and 13 the rulers and the people, and said unto them, Ye 14 brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him; no, nor yet Herod: 15 for he sent him* back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I will there- 16 fore chastise him, and release him.¹ But they cried 18 out all together, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: one who for a certain in- 19 surrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. And Pilate spake unto them again, de- 20 siring to release Jesus; but they shouted, saying, 21 Crucify, crucify him. And he said unto them the 22 third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will there- fore chastise him and release him. But they were 23 instant† with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. And Pilate 24 gave sentence that what they asked for should be done. And he released him that for insurrection 25 and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

And when they led him away, they laid hold upon 26 one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

And there followed him a great multitude of the 27 people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters 28 of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days 29 are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. Then shall they be- 30 gin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in the 31 green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

 est thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.
 51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.
- 2 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana 2 of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples, to the mar-
 3 riage. And when the wine failed, the mother of Je-4 sus saith unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with 5 thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do 6 it. Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two 7 or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up 8 to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the 10 good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in 11 Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and 12 his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and there they abode not many days.

And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and 13 Jesus went up to Jerusalem. And he found in the 14 temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and he made a 15 scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; and to 16 them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. His disciples remembered that it was 17 written, The zeal of thine house* shall eat me up. The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, 18 What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto 19 them, Destroy this ¹temple, and in three days I will raise it up. The Jews therefore said, Forty and six 20 years was this ¹temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? But he spake of the 21 ¹temple of his body. When therefore he was raised 22 from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, 23 during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. But Jesus did not trust 24 himself unto them, for that he knew all men, and 25 because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning ²man; for he himself knew what was in man.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named 3 Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came 2 unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Ver- 3 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly 13 things? And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, ⁴even the Son 14 of man, ⁵which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the 15 Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever ⁶believ-eth may in him have eternal life. ⁷ 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him 17 should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world;

 but that the world should be saved through him.
 18 He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten 19 Son of God. And this is the judgement, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were 20 evil. For every one that ⁸doeth ill ⁹hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should 21 be ¹⁰reproved. But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, ever I did: can this be the Christ? They went out 30 of the city, and were coming to him. In the mean 31 while the disciples prayed him, saying, Rabbi, eat.

But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye 32 know not. The disciples therefore said one to an- 33 other, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of 34 him that sent me, and to accomplish his work. Say 35 not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are ¹white already unto harvest. He that reapeth receiveth 36 wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. For herein is the saying true, One soweth, 37 and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that where- 38 on ye have not laboured: others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labour.

¹ Or, white unto harvest. Already he that reapeth &c.

And from that city many of the Samaritans be- 39 lieved on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me all things that ever I did.
So when the Samaritans came unto him, they be- 40 sought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his 41 word; and they said to the woman, Now we be- 42 lieve, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world.

And after the two days he went forth from 43 thence into Galilee. For Jesus himself testified, 44 that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.
So when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans receiv- 45 ed him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

He came therefore again unto Cana of Galilee, 46 where he made the water wine. And there was a certain ²nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of 47 Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said 48 unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. The ²nobleman saith unto him, 49 ³Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto 50 him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his ⁴ser- 51

They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 After these things there was 'a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

1 Many ancient authorities read the feast.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew ²Bethesda, having 3 five porches. In these lay a multitude of them that

3 Many ancient authorities insert, wholly or in part, waiting for the moving of the water:

4 for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole, with whatever disease he was holden.

10 Now it was the sabbath on that day. So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and

4 Or, Lord

11 it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same

12 said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take

13 up thy bed, and walk? But he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself

14 away, a multitude being in the place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him,

Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a 15 worse thing befall thee. The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made 16 him whole. And for this cause did the Jews persecute Jesus, because he did these things on the

17 sabbath. But Jesus answered them, My Father

18 worketh even until now, and I work. For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. For the Father 20 loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and greater works than these will he shew him, that ye may marvel. For as the 21 Father raiseth the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son also quickeneth whom he will. For 22 neither doth the Father judge any man, but he hath given all judgement unto the Son; that all may 23 honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto 24 you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgement, but hath passed out of death into life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and 25 now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. For as 26 the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: and he gave 27 him authority to execute judgement, because he is ¹the Son of man*. Marvel not at this: for the hour 28 cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have 29 done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have ²done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.

He was the lamp that burneth and 35 shineth: and ye were willing to rejoice for a season in his light. But the witness which I have is greater 36 than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. 6 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that 3 were sick. And Jesus went up into the mountain, 4 and there he sat with his disciples. Now the pass-multitude cometh unto him, saith unto Philip, disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain 13 over, that nothing be lost. So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over 14 unto them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw the ⁵sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.

⁵ Some ancient authorities read signs.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.

And when evening came, his disciples went down 16 unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, and 17 were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind 18 that blew. When therefore they had rowed about 19 five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid. But he saith unto 20 them, It is I; be not afraid. They were willing 21 therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

On the morrow the multitude which stood on the 22 other side of the sea saw that there was none other 1 boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone (howbeit there came 2 boats from 23 Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the 24 multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the 2 boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. And when they found him on the other side of the 25 sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, 26 verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. Work not for the meat which perisheth, but 27 for the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed. They said therefore 28 unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, 29 This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom 3 he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, 30 What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? Our fathers 31 ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. Jesus there- 32 fore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. For the bread of God is that which 33 cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. They said therefore unto him, Lord, 34

 I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never 36 thirst. But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, 37 and yet believe not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh 38 to me I will in no wise cast out. For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the 39 will of him that sent me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the 40 last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and ¹ I will raise him up at the last day. ¹ Or, that I should 41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down 42 out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of 43 heaven? Jesus answered and said unto them, Mur-44 mur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me draw him: 45 and I will raise him up in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God.

Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath 46 learned, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is from God, he hath 47 seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He 48 that believeth hath eternal life. I am the bread of 49 life. Your fathers did eat the manna in the wilder-50 ness, and they died. This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, 51 and not die. I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
 53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves.
 54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is ²meat indeed, and my blood is ³drink 56 indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my 57 blood abideth in me, and I in him. As the living

Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear ²it? But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? What then if ye should behold the Son 62 of man ascending where he was before? It is the 63 spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. But there are some of you that believe 64 not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should betray him. And he said, For this cause have I 65 said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

3 Or, hast words

Upon this many of his disciples went back, and 66 walked no more with him. Jesus said therefore 67 unto the twelve, Would ye also go away? Simon 68 Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou ³hast the words of eternal life. And we have 69 believed and know that thou art the Holy One of God. Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you 70 the twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake 71 of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

21 son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for 22 himself. These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he 23 should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said 24 his parents, He is of age; ask him. So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this 25 man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, 26 whereas I was blind, now I see. They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened 27 he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear 28 it again? would ye also become his disciples? And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; 29 but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we 30 know not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine 31 eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, 32 him he heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born 33 blind. If this man were not from God, he could do 34 nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us?
 And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on 'the Son of 36 God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, 37 that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh 38 with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he 39 worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgement came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind.
 40 Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind?
 41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is ¹the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

 When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This ²parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.
 All that came before me* are thieves and robbers:
 but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door:
 by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may ³have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep.
 He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
 I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own,
 and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must ⁴bring, and they shall hear my voice; and ⁵they shall become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. No one ⁶taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have ⁷power to lay it down, and I have ⁷power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. And many of them said, 20
 He hath a ⁸devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a ⁸devil. Can a ⁸devil open the eyes of Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, be-them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are 11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

 2 And it was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose 3 brother Lazarus was sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou 4 lovest is sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby.
 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. When therefore he heard that he was sick, he 6 abode at that time two days in the place where he was. Then after this he saith to the disciples, Let 7 us go into Judæa again. The disciples say unto 8 him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, 9 Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the 10 night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him.

 These things spake he: and after this he saith unto 11 them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. The disciples 12 therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his 13 death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto them 14 plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your 15 sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. Thomas 16 therefore, who is called ²Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

So when Jesus came, he found that he had been 17 in the tomb four days already. Now Bethany was 18 nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; and 19 many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. Martha 20 therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house.
 Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou 21 hadst been here, my brother had not died. And 22 even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy 23 brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I 24 know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resur- 25 rection and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and 26 believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this?
 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that 27 thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. And when she had said 28 this, she went away, and called Mary ³her sister secretly, saying, The ⁴Master is here, and calleth thee.
 And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went 29 unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the 30 village, but was still in the place where Martha met

- 32 to ¹weep there. Mary therefore, when she came ¹Gr. wail where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here,
- 33 my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her ²weeping, and the Jews also ²weeping which came with her, he ³groaned in the spirit, and ³was ³Gr. wailing troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They
- 34 say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. ⁴Gr. was moved with indignation in the spirit
- 35 The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him! ⁴Gr. troubled himself
- 36 But some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused
- 37 that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again ⁵groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. ⁵Or, being moved with indignation in himself
- 38 Now it was a cave, and a stone lay ⁶against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four
- 39 days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory
- 40 of God? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee
- 41 that thou heardest me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe
- 42 that thou didst send me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come
- 43 forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with ⁷grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. ⁷Or, grave-bands
- 44 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Mary and beheld ⁸that which he did, believed on him. ⁸Many ancient authorities read the things which he did.
- 45 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.
- 46 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this
- 47 man doeth many signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.
- 48 But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing
- 49 at all, nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and
- 50 that the whole nation perish not. Now this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there he tarried with the disciples. Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, to purify themselves. They sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast? Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. So they made him a supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat with him. Mary therefore took a pound of ointment of ¹spikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, which should betray him, saith, Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred ²pence, and given to the poor? Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the ³bag ⁴took away what was put therein. Jesus therefore said, ⁵Suffer her to keep it against the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

On the morrow ⁶a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of stood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these 17 things unto him. The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, 18 and raised him from the dead, bare witness. For this cause also the multitude went and met him, for 19 that they heard that he had done this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, 'Behold ^{1 Or, Ye behold}

 22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew cometh, 23 and Philip, and they tell Jesus. And Jesus an-

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and ²hid himself from them. But though he had done ³⁷so many signs before them, yet they believed not on him: that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be ³⁸fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report?

For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah ³⁹said again,

He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened ⁴⁰their heart;

Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,

And should turn,

And I should heal them.

These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory; ⁴¹and he spake of him. Nevertheless even of the ⁴²rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess ⁴³it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the ⁴³glory of men more than the glory of God*.

And ⁴⁷if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and ⁴⁸receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in the last day. For I spake not from myself; but the ⁴⁹Father which sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life ⁵⁰eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you.
If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than I.
And now I have told you before it come to pass, 29 that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe. I 30 will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh: and he hath nothing in me;
but that the world may know that I love the Father, 31 and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husband-15 man. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, 2 he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.
Already ye are clean because of the word which I 3 have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. 4
As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that 5 abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. If a 6 man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, 7 and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will,
and it shall be done unto you. Herein ²is my Fa- 8 19 hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the the word that I said unto you, A ^{2 Gr. bondservant.} servant is not will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they 21 will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know 22 not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have 23 no excuse for their sin. He that hateth me hateth 24 my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and 4 they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you.

 And these things I said not unto you from the be-5 ginning, because I was with you. But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, 6 Whither goest thou? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will 8 send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: of sin, because they believe 9 not on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgement, because the prince of this world hath been judged. I 12 have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of 13 truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. He 14 shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. All things whatsoever the Father 15 hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you. A little while, 16 and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me. Some of his disciples therefore 17 said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that 18 he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, 19 and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye 20 shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath 21 sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I 22 will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. And in that 23 day ye shall ¹ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name. When Jesus had spoken these words, he went ¹⁸ forth with his disciples over the ⁶brook ⁷Kidron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, himself and his disciples.  10 not one. Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's ¹servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the ¹servant's name was 11 Malchus. Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

- 12 So the ²band and the ³chief captain, and the offi-13 cers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, and led him to Annas first: for he was father in law to 14 Caiaphas, which was high priest that year. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
- 15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did an-

 16 court of the high priest; but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was were standing there, having made ⁵a fire of coals; ⁵for it was cold; and they were warming themselves:

 and Peter also was with them, standing and warm-

Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. One of the ¹servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.

They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the ²palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the ²palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

Pilate therefore entered again into the ²palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my ³servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, ⁴Thou sayest that I am a king*. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? 38

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged
2 him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple 3 garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him ^{1 Or, with rods} with their 4 hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may 5 know that I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, 6 the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no crime in 7 him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made him-8 self the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard 9 this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the ^{2 Gr. Prætorium.} palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence 10 art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have ^{3 Or, authority} power to re-11 lease thee, and have ³power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no ³power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath great-12 er sin. Upon this Pilate sought to release him:
 but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king ⁴ speaketh against Cæsar. ^{4 Or, opposeth Cæ-} 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgement-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in He-14 brew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he 15 saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have 16 no king but Cæsar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.
17 They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called
 The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew 18 Golgotha: where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.
19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross.
 And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many 20 of the Jews: ¹for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. The chief 21 priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have 22 written I have written.

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified 23 Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the ²coat: now the ²coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not 24 rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,

And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. But there 25 were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his 26 mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold, thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy 27 mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home.

After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now 28 finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. There was set there a vessel full of 29 vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When 30 Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

The Jews therefore, because it was the Prepara- 31
tion, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The 32 soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him: but when they came to Jesus, and saw that 33 he was dead already, they brake not his legs: how- 34 side, and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, 35 and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he things came to pass, that the scripture might be 37 fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be 'broken. And ^{1 Or, crushed.} again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He

39 came therefore, and took away his body. And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a ²mixture of myrrh and

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein 42 was never man yet laid. There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the

2 tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where

3 they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the 4 tomb. And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb;

5 and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. Simon Peter

6 therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths

7 lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place

8 by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, which came first to the tomb, and he

9 saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the

12 tomb; and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body

13 of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. When she had thus said, 14 she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith 15 unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, 16 and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, ¹Master. Jesus saith to her, ²Touch me not; for 17 I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, 18 I have seen the Lord; and how that he had said these things unto her.

When therefore it was evening, on that day, the 19 first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had said this, he 20 shewed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto 21 you: as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, 22 and saith unto them, Receive ye the ³Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto 23 them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

But Thomas, one of the twelve, called ⁴Didymus, 24 was not with them when Jesus came. The other ⁵25 disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

And after eight days again his disciples were with- 26 in, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither 27 thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said unto him, 28 My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Be- 29 cause thou hast seen me, ⁶thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the pres- 30

ence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called ¹Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked*), and cast himself into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. So when they got out upon the land, they see ²a fire of coals there, and ³fish laid thereon, and ⁴bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. Simon Peter therefore went ⁵up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus cometh, and taketh the ⁶bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of ⁷John, ⁸lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ⁹love thee. He saith unto him, him the third time, ²Lovest thou me? And he said wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Now this he spake, signifying by what man- 19 ner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus 20 loved following; which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? Peter therefore seeing him saith to 21 Jesus, Lord, ⁵and what shall this man do? Jesus 22 saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. This saying 23 therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

This is the disciple which beareth witness of these 24 things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.

And there are also many other things which Jesus 25
did, the which if they should be written every one,
I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the 12 come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were abiding; both Peter and John and James

 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which know- 24 raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the patriarch 29 David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us unto this day. Being therefore 30 a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins ⁵he would set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this 31 spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus did God raise up, ⁶whereof we 32 all are witnesses. Being therefore ⁷by the right 33 hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. For 34 David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy 35
feet.

8 Or, every house

Let ⁸all the house of Israel therefore know assured- 36

Now when they heard this, they were pricked in 37 their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the 38 apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift 39 of the Holy Ghost. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as 40 many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked 41 generation. They then ¹that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in 42 that day about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and ²fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.

 43 And fear came upon every soul: and many won-44 ders and signs were done ³by the apostles.⁴ And all that believed were together, and had all things com-45 mon; and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need.
 46 And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and singleness 47 of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added ⁵to them day by day those that were being saved*.

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the tem-

 a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them but what I have, that give I thee. In the name of 7 Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength.

 8 And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and

And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran 11 together unto them in the ¹porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, 12 he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ²man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? The God of Abraham, and 13 of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his ³Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. But ye denied the Holy 14 and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the ⁴Prince of life; 15 whom God raised from the dead; ⁵whereof we are witnesses. And ⁶by faith in his name hath his name 16 made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that in ignorance ye did 17 it, as did also your rulers. But the things which 18 God foreshewed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. Re- 19 pent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; and that he 20 may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, even Jesus: whom the heaven must receive un- 21 til the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began*. Yea 24 and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and 25 of the covenant which God ⁸made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.  ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, 9 for so much. But Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall 10 carry thee out. And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her 11 out and buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they 13 were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: how-14 beit the people magnified them; ^{4 Or, and there were the more added to them, believing on the Lord.} and believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of 15 men and women; insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, at the least his 16 shadow might overshadow some one of them. And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were

with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, and laid hands on 18 the apostles, and put them in public ward. But an 19 angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, Go ye, and stand 20 and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life. And when they heard this, they entered 21 into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. But the officers that 22 came found them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, saying, The prison-house we found 23 shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the captain of the temple and 24 the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. And there came one and told them, Behold, 25 the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. Then went 26 the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. And when they had brought 27 them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, saying, We straitly charged 28 you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. But Peter and the 29 apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up 30 Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. Him 31 did God exalt ¹with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. And we are witnesses² of these 32 ³things; ⁴and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

But they, when they heard this, were cut to the 33 heart, and were minded to slay them. But there 34 stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. And he said unto them, Ye men of 35 Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. For before these 36 days rose up Theudas, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and 37 came to nought. After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work
 39 be of men, it will be overthrown: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply 40 ye be found even to be fighting against God. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let 41 them go. They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted 42 worthy to suffer dishonour for the Name. And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

6 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the ¹Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not ²fit that we should forsake the word of God, and ³serve tables.

 6 menas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
 7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
 8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought
 9 great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them

Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, 11 which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they 12 stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, and set up false witnesses, 13 which said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: for we have 14 heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered unto us. And all that sat in the 15 council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

And the high priest said, Are these things so? 7
And he said, 2

Brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, and said 3 unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæ- 4 ans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: and he gave him none in- 5 heritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. And God spake on this wise, that his 6 seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil, four hundred years. And the nation to which 7 they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. And he gave him the covenant of cir- 8 cumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. And the patri- 9 archs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, and delivered 10 him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, 11 and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. But when Jacob heard that there was 12 corn in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. And at the second time Joseph was made 13 known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became

14 manifest unto Pharaoh. And Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, three-15 score and fifteen souls. And Jacob went down into 16 Egypt; and he died, himself, and our fathers; and they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver 17 of the sons of 'Hamor in Shechem. But as the time ^{1 Gr. Emmor.} of the promise drew nigh, which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in 18 Egypt, till there arose another king over Egypt, 19 which knew not Joseph. The same dealt subtilly with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, that 'they should cast out their babes to the end they ^{2 Or, he} 20 might not 'live. At which season Moses was born, and was 'exceeding fair; and he was nourished three ^{3 Gr. be preserved} 21 months in his father's house: and when he was cast ^{4 Or, fair unto God} out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished 22 him for her own son. And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty 23 in his words and works. But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit 24 his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged 25 him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving them 'deliverance; but ^{5 Or, salvation} 26 they understood not. And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; 27 why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who 28 made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yester-29 day? And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two 30 sons. And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, 31 in a flame of fire in a bush. And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to

 This man led them forth, having wrought wonders 36 unto me. This is he that was in the ³church in 38 the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give unto us: to whom our 39 fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us gods which shall go 40 before us: for as for this Moses, which led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and 41 brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. But God turned, and gave 42

Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in 44

 Moses, that he should make it according to the figure that he had seen. Which also our fathers, in their 45 turn, brought in with ⁴Joshua when they entered on the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; who found favour in the sight of God, and 46 asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.

Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. And Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. But Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

They therefore that were scattered abroad went about preaching the word. And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. ²For from many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. And there was much joy in that city.

But 12 when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. And Simon also himself believed: and 13 being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding signs and great 1 miracles wrought, he was amazed.

Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem 14 heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when 15 they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was 16 fallen* upon none of them: only they had been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid 17 they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Now when Simon saw that through 18 the laying on of the apostles' hands the 2 Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me 19 also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. But Peter said unto 20 him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this 3 matter: for 21 thy heart is not right before God. Repent there- 22 fore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. For I see that thou 4 art in the gall of bitter- 23 ness and in the bond of iniquity. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

They therefore, when they had testified and 25 spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

 29 And the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join 30 thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Un-31 derstandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him.
 32 Now the place of the scripture which he was read-

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
 And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,
 So he openeth not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?
 For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of him-35 self, or of some other? And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached 36 unto him Jesus. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to 38 be baptized?¹ And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
 39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing.
 40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

 it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus:
 and suddenly there shone round about him a light 4 out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest

Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, 10 named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go 11 to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; and he hath seen a 12 man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to thy saints at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief 14 priests to bind all that call upon thy name. But 15 the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a ¹chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children of Israel: for I 16 will shew him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias departed, and entered 17 into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; and he took food and was strengthened. 19

And he was certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of God. And all that heard him were amazed, and 21 said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem made havoc of them which called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. But Saul increased 22 the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews 23 took counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: but 25 his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

And when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed 26

- 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly
- 28 in the name of Jesus. And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the 'Grecian Jews; but they went
- 29 about to kill him. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

Now there was a certain man in Cæsarea, Corne-¹⁰ lius by name, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, a devout man, and one that feared ² God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. He saw in a ³ vision openly, as it were about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. And he, fastening his ⁴ eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are gone up for a memorial before God.
 And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, ⁵ who is surnamed Peter: he lodgeth with one Simon ⁶ a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. And when ⁷ the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; and ⁸ having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

Now on the morrow, as they were on their jour- ⁹ ney, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour:
 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while ¹⁰ they made ready, he fell into a trance; and he be- ¹¹ holdeth the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: wherein were all manner ¹² of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and fowls of the heaven. And there came a voice ¹³ to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. But Peter said, ¹⁴ Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common and unclean. And a voice came unto ¹⁵ him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice: ¹⁶ and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself ¹⁷ what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, and called and asked whether Simon, which ¹⁸ was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And while ¹⁹ Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. But arise, and ²⁰ get thee down, and go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. And Peter went down to ²¹ the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek:
 what is the cause wherefore ye are come? And ²²

they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to 23 hear words from thee. So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him. And on the morrow ¹they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near 25 friends. And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, 26 and worshipped him. But Peter raised him up, 27 saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth 28 many come together: and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know ²how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God shewed that I should not call any man com-29 mon or unclean: wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore 30 with what intent ye sent for me. And Cornelius said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, 31 a man stood before me in bright apparel, and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are 32 had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Si-33 mon a tanner, by the sea side. Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did 39 both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him 40 God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, not to all the people, but unto wit- 41 nesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he charged us to preach unto the 42 people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him bear all the prophets witness, that through 43 his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost 44 fell on all them which heard the word. And they 45 of the circumcision which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and mag- 46 nify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man for- 47 bid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the 48 name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

Now the apostles and the brethren that were in 11 Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men 2 uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Peter began, and expounded the matter unto them in order, saying, I was in the city of Joppa praying: 3 and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me: upon the which when I had fastened mine 4 eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the heaven. And I heard also a voice say- 5 ing unto me, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. But I said, 6 Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. But a voice answered 7 8 the second time out of heaven, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. And this was 9 done thrice: and all were drawn up again into heaven. And behold, forthwith three men stood before 11

the house in which we were, having been sent from 12 Cæsarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the 13 man's house: and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter;
 14 who shall speak unto thee words, whereby thou 15 shalt be saved, thou and all thy house. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, even 16 as on us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ¹with ¹Or, in 17 the Holy Ghost. If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could 18 withstand God? And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying,
 Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life.

19 They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phœnicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking 20 the word to none save only to Jews. But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the 21 ²Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great num-22 ber that believed turned unto the Lord. And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth 23 Barnabas as far as Antioch: who, when he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, ³that with purpose of heart 24 they would cleave unto the Lord: for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and 25 much people was added unto the Lord. And he 26 went forth to Tarsus to seek for Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together ⁴with the church, and taught ⁴Gr. in.
 much people; and that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 Now in these days there came down prophets 28 from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all ⁵the world: which came to pass in the days of ⁵Gr. the inhabited earth.

Claudius. And the disciples, every man according 29 to his ability, determined to send 'relief unto the brethren that dwelt in Judæa: which also they did, 30 sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Now about that time Herod the king put forth 12 his hands to afflict certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 2
And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days 3 of unleavened bread. And when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four 4 quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people.
Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for 5
him. And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between 6 two soldiers, bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. And behold, an 7 angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said 8 unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals.
And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went 9 out, and followed: and he wist not that it was true which was done ²by the angel, but thought he saw a vision. And when they were past the first and the 10 second ward, they came unto the iron gate that lead-eth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, 11 Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. And when he had considered the thing, he 12 came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and were praying. And when he 13 knocked at the door of the gate, a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's 14 voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in,
and told that Peter stood before the gate. And 15 they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, 16

- It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were 17 amazed. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to an-18 other place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become 19 of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be ¹put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and tarried there.
- 20 Now he was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their 21 country was fed from the king's country. And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the ²throne, and made an oration 22 unto them. And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.
- 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
- 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned ³from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them John whose surname was Mark.
- 13 Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the 2 tetrarch, and Saul. And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have 3 called them. Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
- 4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sail-5 ed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their at-6 tendant. And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith.

 But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the 9

Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, 13 and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. But they, 14 passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. And after the reading 15 of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.
 And Paul stood up, and beckoning with the hand 16 said,

Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, hearken.
 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and 17 exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years: and after 20 these things he gave them judges until Samuel the and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years.

- 23 after my heart, who shall do all my ¹will. Of this man's seed hath God according to promise brought 24 unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus; when John had first preached ²before his coming the baptism of repent-25 ance to all the people of Israel. And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy 26 to unloose. Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us 27 is the word of this salvation sent forth. For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by con-28 demning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet asked they of Pilate that he should 29 be slain. And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from 30 the tree, and laid him in a tomb. But God raised 31 him from the dead: and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses unto the people.
 32 And we bring you good tidings of the promise 33 made unto the fathers, how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
 34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and 35 sure blessings of David. Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to 36 see corruption. For David, after he had ³in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw cor-37 ruption: but he whom God raised up saw no cor-38 ruption. Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you re-39 mission of sins: and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye 40 could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets;
 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and ⁴'perish;
 For I work a work in your days,
 A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.
 42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath. Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the 43 Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

1 Many ancient authorities read the Lord.

2 Or, railed.

And the next sabbath almost the whole city was 44 gathered together to hear the word of 'God.' But 45 when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and ²blasphemed. And Paul 46 and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord com- 47 manded us, saying,

I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles, That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and 48 glorified the word of 'God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of 49 the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. But the Jews urged on the devout women of 50 honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. But 51 they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were 52 filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they en- 14 tered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. But the Jews that were dis- 2 obedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren. Long 3 time therefore they tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, which bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was di- 4 vided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was made an onset 5 both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to entreat them shamefully, and to stone them, they became aware of it, and fled unto the 6 cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the region round about: and there they preached the 7 gospel.

8 And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent 9 in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who 10 never had walked. The same heard Paul speak-11 ing: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing 12 that he had faith to be ¹made whole*, said with a ¹Or, saved 13 loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he 14 leaped up and walked. And when the multitudes 15 saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, 16 saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are 17 come down to us in the likeness of men. And they 18 called Barnabas, ²Jupiter; and Paul, ³Mercury, be-19 cause he was the chief speaker. And the priest of 20 ²Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought 21 oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have 22 done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the 23 apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent 24 their garments, and sprang forth among the multi-25 tude, crying out and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like ⁴passions with ⁴Or, nature you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways.
 And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.
 But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God.
 And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. And they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; and 26 thence they sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. And when they 27 were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and how that he had opened a door of faith unto the Gentiles. And they tarried no little time 28 with the disciples.

And certain men came down from Judæa and 15 taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved.
And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissen- 2 sion and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. They therefore, being 3 brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phœnicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And when they were come to Jer- 4 usalem, they were received of the church and the apostles and the elders, and they rehearsed all things that God had done with them. But there rose up 5 certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, It is needful to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.

And the apostles and the elders were gathered to- 6 gether to consider of this matter. And when there 7 had been much questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them,

1 Gr. from early days.

Brethren, ye know how that 'a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the heart, bare 8 them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and he made no distinction between 9 us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now 10 therefore why tempt ye God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we be- 11 lieve that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

And all the multitude kept silence; and they 12 hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. And after they had held their peace, 13
James answered, saying,

14 Brethren, hearken unto me: Symeon hath rehearsed how first God did visit the Gentiles, to take 15 out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After these things I will return,
 And I will build again the tabernacle of David,
 which is fallen;
 And I will build again the ruins thereof,
 And I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men may seek after the Lord,
 And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called,

18 Saith the Lord, 'who maketh these things known from the beginning of the world*.

¹ Or, who doeth these things which were known

19 Wherefore my judgement is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles turn to God; 20 but that we ²write unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and 21 from what is strangled, and from blood. For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

So they, when they were dismissed, came down 30 to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. And when they 31 had read it, they rejoiced for the ¹consolation. And 32 Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, ²exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. And after they had spent some time there, 33 they were dismissed in peace from the brethren unto those that had sent them forth³. But Paul and Bar- 35 nabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, 36 Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they fare. And Barnabas was minded 37 to take with them John also, who was called Mark. But Paul thought not good to take with them him 38 who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And there arose a sharp 39 contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; but Paul chose Silas, and went 40 forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Ci- 41 licia, confirming the churches.

And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and 16 behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess which believed; but his father was a Greek. The same was well reported of by the 2 brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. Him 3 would Paul have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. And as they went on their way through 4 the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which had been ordained of the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. So the churches 5 were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

And they went through the region of Phrygia 6 and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Ghost to speak the word in Asia; and when they 7 were come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them

- 8 not; and passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.
 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.
 10 And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.
 11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying
 12 certain days. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which were come 13 together. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were 14 spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
 15 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having ¹a spirit of ¹Gr. a spirit, a Python.

 18 way of salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

 22 Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the ⁵magistrates rent their garments off 23 them, and commanded to beat them with rods. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and 25 Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened; and every one's bands were loosed. And the jailor being roused out 27 of sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a 28 loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. And he called for lights, and sprang in, 29 and, trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what 30 must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on 31 the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word of ¹the Lord 32 unto him, with all that were in his house. And he 33 took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. And he brought them up into his house, 34 and set ²meat before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, ³having believed in God.

And the jailor 36 reported the words to Paul, saying, The ⁴magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They 37 have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. And the ⁵serjeants reported these words unto the ⁴magistrates: and they 38 feared, when they heard that they were Romans; and they came and besought them; and when they 39 had brought them out, they asked them to go away from the city. Now when they had passed through Amphipolis ¹⁷ and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three ⁷sabbath days reasoned with them from the scriptures, opening and alleging, that it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus,

- 4 And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.
- 5 But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them
- 6 forth to the people. And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned
- 7 ¹the world upside down are come hither also; whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another
- 8 king, one Jesus. And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these
- 9 things. And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.
- 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the
- 11 Jews. Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily,
- 12 whether these things were so. Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honour-
- 13 able estate, and of men, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the
- 14 multitudes. And then immediately the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas
- 15 and Timothy abode there still. But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.
- 16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the
- 17 city full of idols. So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the
- 18 marketplace every day with them that met him. And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter

(Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there 'spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and 22 said, Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are somewhat "superstitious". For as I passed along, 23 and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, "TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this set I forth unto you. The God that made the world 24 and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in "temples made with hands; neither is he served by men's hands, as though he 25 needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and he made of one 26 every nation of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; that they 27 should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from each one of us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that "the God-head is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. The times of ignorance 30 therefore God overlooked; but now he "commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: inasmuch as he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge "the world in righteousness "by "the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

Now when they heard of the resurrection of the 32 dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. Thus Paul went out 33 from among them. But certain men clave unto 34 him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things he departed from Athens, and 18

And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and 3 he came unto them; and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they wrought; for 4 by their trade they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and ¹persuaded Jews and Greeks. ¹ Gr. sought to persuade.

5 But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. And when they opposed themselves, and ²blasphemed, he shook out his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from 7 henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, 8 whose house joined hard to the synagogue. And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, ³believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by a vision, Be not 10 afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and 13 brought him before the judgement-seat, saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary 14 to the law. But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, 15 reason would that I should bear with you: but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to 16 be a judge of these matters. And he drave them from the judgement-seat. And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchreæ: for he had a 19 vow. And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. And when they asked him to abide a longer time, he consented not; but taking his leave of them, and saying, I will re- turn again unto you, if God will, he set sail from Ephesus. And when he had landed at Cæsarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to Antioch. And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, establishing all the disciples.

Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, ¹a learned man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in the scriptures. This man ²had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John: and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more carefully. And when he was minded to pass over into Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he ³helped them much which had believed through grace: for ⁴he powerfully confuted the Jews, ⁵*and that* publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: and he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether the Holy Ghost was given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Jesus. And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And they were in all about twelve men.

And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when some were hardened and disobe-

- 10 And this continued for the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word

- 12 insomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits

- 14 eth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did this. And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I ^{2 Or, recognise} know,
- 16 and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and
- 17 wounded. And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus
- 18 was magnified. Many also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.
- 19 And not a few of them that practised ^{3 Or, magical} 'curious arts
- 20 brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.
- 21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.
- 22 And having sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

gods, which are made with hands: and not only is ²⁷ there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess ¹Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and ²the world worshippeth. And ²⁸ when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is ³Diana of the Ephesians. And the city was filled with the confusion: ²⁹ and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. And when Paul ³⁰ was minded to enter in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain also of the ³chief ³¹ officers of Asia*, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some ³² another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. ⁴And they brought Alexander out of the ³³ multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people. But when they ³⁴ perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is ⁵Diana of the Ephesians. - 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called

Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time, serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell me by the plots of the Jews: how that I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But I hold not my life of any account, as dear unto myself, ²so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I shrank not from declaring unto you the whole counsel of God. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in the which the Holy Ghost hath made you ³bishops, to feed the church of ⁴God*, which he ⁵purchased with his own blood. I know that after my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day with tears. And now I commend you to ⁶God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified. I coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ye yourselves know that these hands ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, how that so labouring ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. 38 and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

21 And when it came to pass that we were parted from them, and had set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and 2 from thence unto Patara: and having found a ship crossing over unto Phœnicia, we went aboard, and 3 set sail. And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to 4 unlade her burden. And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot 5 in Jerusalem. And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: 6 and kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we abode with him.

9 Now this man had four daughters, virgins, which 10 did prophesy. And as we tarried there 'many days', ^{1 Or, some} there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, 11 named Agabus. And coming to us, and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the 12 Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him not to go 13 up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem 14 for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And they, when they heard it, glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed; and they are all zealous for the law: and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore? they will certainly hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; these take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. But as touching the Gentiles which have believed, we wrote, giving judgment that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on him, crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath defiled this holy place. For they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. And as they were seeking to kill him,

- 32 that all Jerusalem was in confusion. And forthwith he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.
- 34 And some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought
- 35 into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the
- 36 violence of the crowd; for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, Away with him.

- 39 But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give
- 40 me leave to speak unto the people. And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, saying,
- 22 Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.
- 2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,
- 3 I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are
- 4 this day: and I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and
- 5 women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, for to be punished.
- 6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round
- 7 about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? 8 And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me be- 9 held indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. And I said, What shall 10 I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that 11 light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a 12 devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews that dwelt there, came unto me, and 13 standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very hour I looked up on him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath ap- 14 pointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. For 15 thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest 16 thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name. And it came to pass, 17 that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, and saw 18 him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me. And I said, 19 Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: and when the blood of Stephen thy witness was 20 shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, and keeping the garments of them that slew him. And 21 he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence unto the Gentiles.

And they gave him audience unto this word; and 22 they lifted up their voice, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. And as they cried out, and threw off 23 their garments, and cast dust into the air, the chief 24 captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so shouted against him. And when they had tied him up 25 with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? And when the cen- 26 turion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for 27 this man is a Roman. And the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And 28 he said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And 29 Paul said, But I am a Roman born. They then which were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good 2 conscience until this day. And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite 3 him on the mouth. Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: and sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest 4 me to be smitten contrary to the law? And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?
5 And Paul said, I wist not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak 6 evil of a ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called 7 in question. And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees: 8 and the assembly was divided. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor 9 spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great clamour: and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: and what if a spirit hath 10 spoken to him, or an angel? And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer: for as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

And when it was day, the Jews banded together, 12 and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which 13 made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief 14 priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. Now therefore do ye with the 15 council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to slay him. But Paul's sister's son heard 16 of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called unto him 17 one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath something to tell him. So he took him, and brought him to 18 the chief captain, and saith, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee.
 And the chief captain took him by the hand, and 19 going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to tell me? And he said, The Jews have agreed 20 to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. Do not thou there- 21 fore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. So the chief cap- 22 tain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me.
 And he called unto him two of the centurions, and 23 said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: and he bade them provide beasts, that they 24 might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this 25 form:

Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor 26
 Felix, greeting. This man was seized by the Jews, 27 and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. And desiring 28 to know the cause wherefore they accused him, ²¹I brought him down unto their council: whom I 29

found to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man*, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.¹

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: and they, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he had read it, he asked of what province he was: and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thy cause†, said he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's palace.

24 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed the governor against 2 Paul. And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this nation, we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I intreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold:⁴ from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

⁴ Some ancient authorities insert and we would have judged him according to our law. † But the chief captain Ly-sias came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come before thee.

10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered,

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make my defence: seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof 13 they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, 14 1 Or, heresy that after the Way which they call 'a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets: having hope toward God, which these 15 also themselves ²look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. Herein do I also 16 exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men alway. Now after ³many 17 years* I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: ⁴amidst which they found me purified in the 18 temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but there were certain Jews from Asia—who ought to 19 have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught against me. Or else let these men 20 themselves say what wrong-doing they found, when I stood before the council, except it be for this one 21 voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

But Felix, having more exact knowledge concern- 22 ing the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. And he gave order to the centurion 23 that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, 24
 5 Or, his own wife. ⁵his wife, which was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. And as he reasoned of righteousness, and ⁶temper- 25 ance, and the judgement to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. He hoped withal that money would be given him of 26 Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. But when two years 27 were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

⁷ Or, having entered upon his province Festus therefore, having come into the province, 25 after three days went up to Jerusalem from Cæsarea. And the chief priests and the principal men 2

 3 besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; laying wait* to kill 4 him on the way. Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæsarea, and that he 5 himself was about to depart thither shortly. Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.
- 6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat, and 7 commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could not 8 prove; while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, 9 nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. But Festus, desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and 10 there be judged of these things before me? But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have
 I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest.
 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can ¹give me up unto them. I appeal 12 unto Cæsar. Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.
- 13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Cæsarea, ²and saluted 14 Festus. And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is 15 a certain man left a prisoner by Felix: about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence 16 against him. To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence con-17 cerning the matter laid against him. When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. Concern- 18 ing whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; but 19 had certain questions against him of their own ¹religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how 20 to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be 21 kept for the decision of ²the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. And 22 Agrippa said unto Festus, I also ³could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

So on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and 23 Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. And Festus saith, 24 King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. But I found that he had committed 25 nothing worthy of death: and as he himself appealed to ²the emperor I determined to send him. Of whom 26
 I have no certain thing to write unto my lord.
 Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write.
 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a 27 prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

And Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted 26 to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to 2 make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: ⁴es- 3 pecially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of 4 life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; having knowledge of me 5 from the first, if they be willing to testify, how that after the straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand here to be judged for the 6

- hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers;
 7 unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king!
 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth 9 raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of 10 Jesus of Nazareth. And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my vote 11 against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities. ¹Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and 13 commission of the chief priests, at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and 14 them that journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against 15 ²the goad. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And ²the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
 16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things ³wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, to open 18 their eyes, ⁴that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me.
 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient
 20 unto the heavenly vision: but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing 21 works worthy of ⁵repentance. For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill 22 me. Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; ⁶how that the Christ ⁷must suffer, and ⁶how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith 24 with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learning doth turn thee to madness. But Paul saith, 25
I am not mad, most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. For the king 26 knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? 27
I know that thou believest. And Agrippa said unto 28
Paul, With but* little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. And Paul said, I would to 29 God, that whether with little† or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

And the king rose up, and the governor, and Ber- 30 nice, and they that sat with them: and when they 31 had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man 32 might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

And when it was determined that we should sail 27 for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan 'band. And embarking in a ship of Adramyt- 2 tium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next 3 day we touched at Sidon: and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go unto his friends and †refresh himself. And putting to sea from 4 thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed 5 across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the 6 centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had 7 sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not †further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over against Salmone; and with difficulty coasting along 8
it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

was now dangerous, because the Fast was now al-10 ready gone by, Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the 11 ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by 12 Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phœnix, beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is island called 2 Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, 17 to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowboured exceedingly with the storm, the next day 19 they began to throw the freight overboard; and the third day they cast out with their own hands the stars shone upon us for many days, and no small 21 tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved 22 was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have heark-23 ened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and 24 have gotten this injury and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss 25 of life among you, but 3 only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I 26 am, whom also I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted 27 thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be 28 even so as it hath been spoken unto me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country; and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And 29 fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and 1wished for the day. And as the sailors were seek- 30 ing to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, Paul said to the cen- 31 turion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut 32 away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. And while the day was coming on, Paul besought 33 them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore I beseech you to 34 take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. And when he had said this, and had taken 35 bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: and he brake it, and began to eat. Then were they 36 all of good cheer, and themselves also took food. And we were in all in the ship 2two hundred three- 37 score and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten 38 enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they 39 knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could 2drive the ship upon it. And casting off 40 the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they 41 ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' 42 counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, 43 desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land: and the rest, some on planks, and some 44 on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

And when we were escaped, then we knew that 28 the island was called 4Melita. And the barbarians 2 shewed us no common kindness: for they kindled a

3 and because of the cold. But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ^{1 Or, from the heat} by reason of the heat, and fastened
4 on his hand. And when the barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet Justice
5 hath not suffered to live. Howbeit he shook off the 6 beast into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
- 7 Now in the neighbourhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days
8 courteously. And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying his hands 9 on him healed him. And when this was done, the rest also which had diseases in the island came, and 10 were cured: who also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.
- 11 And after three months we set sail in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose 13 Syracuse, we tarried there three days. And from thence we ^{3 Some ancient authorities read cast loose.} made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium:

 1 Or, call for you, to see and to speak with you this cause therefore did I intreat you to see and to speak with me: for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said unto him, 21 We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. But we desire to 22 hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.

And when they had appointed him a day, they 23 came to him into his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded the matter, testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the 24 things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. And when they agreed not among themselves, they 25 departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost ²by Isaiah the prophet

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

And their ears are dull of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,

And hear with their ears,

And understand with their heart,

And should turn again,

And I should heal them.

3 Some ancient authorities insert ver. 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, having much disputing among themselves.

Be it known therefore unto you, that this salvation 28 of God is sent unto the Gentiles: they will also hear.³

ther and the Lord Jesus Christ.
8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ⁶that your faith is proclaimed throughout ⁶ Or, because impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye 12 may be established; that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's faith, 13 both yours and mine. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the 14 rest of the Gentiles. I am debtor both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the fool-15 ish. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. For I am 16 not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is 17 revealed a righteousness of God ¹by faith* unto who ³hold down† the truth in unrighteousness; be- 19 in them; for God manifested it unto them. For 20 the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; ⁴that they may be without excuse:

because that, knowing God, they glorified him not 21 as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they be- 22 came fools, and changed the glory of the incorrup- 23 tible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their 24 hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonoured among themselves: for that they ex- 25 changed the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who

For the name of God ²⁴ is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it is written. For circumcision indeed prof- ²⁵ iteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. If therefore the uncircum- ²⁶ cision keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? and ²⁷ shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; ²⁸ neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; ²⁹ and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

- 9 What then? ² are we in worse case* than they? ³ Or, do we excuse

No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge

10 sin; as it is written,
There is none righteous, no not one;
11 There is none that understandeth,
There is none that seeketh after God;

17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Where then is the glorying? ²⁷ It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? ²⁸ Nay: but by a law of faith. ²⁹ We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from ³⁰the works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? is he ³¹not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the cir- ³⁰cumcision ⁷by faith, and the uncircumcision ⁸through faith. Do we then make ⁹the law of none effect ³¹through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish ⁹the law†.

¹⁰ Some ancient authorities read of Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh ¹⁰What then shall we say ¹⁰that Abraham, our fore- ⁴father according to the flesh, hath found‡? For if ²Abraham was justified ⁷by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the ³scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him ⁴that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. But to him that worketh not, but ⁵believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. Even as Da- ⁶vid also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from ⁷works, saying,

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not ⁸reckon sin.

Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circum- ⁹cision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in ¹⁰circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the ¹¹sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that

- believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. For not ¹through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were.
- Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body ²now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb: yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.
- Being therefore justified ³by faith, ⁴let us have* peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom also we have had our access ⁵by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and ⁶let us* rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin ; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned :—for until the law sin was in the world : but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a figure of him that was to come. But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the many. And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift : for the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto ⁵justification.
 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one ; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and ⁶of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. So then as through one trespass the judge- ment came unto all men to condemnation ; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men to justification of life. For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous. And ⁷the law came in beside, that the trespass might abound ; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly :

21 that, as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, 2 that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died 3 to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ 4 Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become ¹united with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by 6 the likeness of his resurrection; knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; for he that hath died is justified* from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; 10 death no more hath dominion over him. For ²the death that he died, he died unto sin ³once: but ²the 11 life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, 13 that ye should obey the lusts thereof: neither present your members unto sin as ⁴instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as ⁴instruments of righteousness unto God. so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye were ²⁰ ¹servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the ²¹ things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free ²² from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life. For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of ²³ God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Or are ye ignorant brethren (for I speak to men ⁷ that know ²the law), how that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? For the ² woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. So then ³ if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made ⁴ dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, ⁵ the ²sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we have been discharged from the ⁶ law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God ⁷ forbid. Howbeit, I had not known sin, except through ²the law: for I had not known ⁴coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not ⁴covet: but ⁸ sin, finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of ⁴coveting: for apart from ²the law sin is dead. And I was alive apart ⁹ from ²the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; and the command- ¹⁰ ment, which was unto life, this I found to be unto death: for sin, finding occasion, through the com- ¹¹ mandment beguiled me, and through it slew me. So that the law is holy, and the commandment ¹² holy, and righteous, and good. Did then that which ¹³ is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I ¹do I know not: for not what I would, ^{1 Gr. work.} but what I practise; but what I hate, that I do. But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto the law that it is good. So now it is no more I that ¹do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ¹do that which is good is not. For the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. But if what I would not, that I do, it is no more I that ¹do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. I find then ²the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. For I delight ³in the law ^{3 Gr. with.} of God after the inward man: but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ⁴under the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ⁵the body of death ^{5 Or, this body of death} this death? ⁶I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself with the mind serve* the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. ^{6 Many ancient authorities read But thanks be to God.}

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them ²that are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. For what the law could not do, ⁷in that it was weak through the flesh, God, ^{7 Or, wherein} sending his own Son in the likeness of ⁸sinful flesh ^{8 Gr. flesh of sin.} and as an offering for sin†, condemned sin in the ⁹flesh: that the ¹⁰ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit‡. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit the things of the spirit‡. For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace: because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit‡, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not

For ye received not the spirit of bondage again 15 unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself 16 beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, 17 and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present 18 time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the ear- 19 nest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was 20 subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected it, ⁴in hope that the crea- 21 tion itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole cre- 22 ation groaneth and travaileth in pain ⁵together until now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which 23 have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For by‡ hope 24 were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: for who ⁶hopeth for that which he seeth? But if 25 we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

children : but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are 8 children of God; but the children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. For this is a word of 9 promise, According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. And not only so; but Re-10becca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac—for the children being not yet born, nei-11ther having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said unto 12 her, The elder shall serve the younger. Even as it 13 is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

What shall we say then? Is there unrighteous-14ness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, 15 I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him 16 that runneth, but of God that hath mercy. For 17 the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. So then he hath mercy on 18 whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he still 19 find fault? For who withstandeth his will? Nay 20 but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? Or hath not the 21 potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? What if God, willing* to shew his 22 wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto de-struction: 'and that he might make known the rich-23es of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he also called, 24 not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? As he saith also in Hosea, 25

I will call that my people, which was not my people;

And her beloved, which was not beloved.

And it shall be, that in the place where it was 26 said unto them, Ye are not my people,

There shall they be called sons of the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is 28 the remnant that shall be saved: for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. And, as Isaiah hath said before,

Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed,
We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith:

31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, 32 did not arrive at that law. Wherefore? ^{1 Or, Because, doing it not by faith, but as it were by works, they stumbled} ¹Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works.

33 They stumbled at the stone of stumbling; even as it is written,

And he that believeth on ²him shall not be put ^{2 Or, it} to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's ³desire and my supplication ^{3 Gr. good pleasure.}

2 to God is for them, that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but
3 not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law
5 unto righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses writeth that the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to 7 bring Christ down:) or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, ^{4 Or, that}
9 which we preach: ⁵because if thou shalt ⁵confess ^{5 Some ancient authorities read confess the word with thy mouth, that Jesus is Lord.} with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou

10 shalt be saved: for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession 11 is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to 12 shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is 13 rich unto all that call upon him: for, Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring ¹glad tidings of good things!

² Or, gospel

But they did not all hearken to the ²glad tidings. 16 For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by 17 the word of Christ. But I say, Did they not hear? 18 Yea, verily, ³ Gr. the inhabited earth.

And their words unto the ends of ³the world.

But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith, 19 I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

And Isaiah is very bold, and saith, 20

I was found of them that sought me not;
I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I 21 spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

I say then, Did God cast off his people? God 11 forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God did not 2 cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith ⁴of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel, Lord, they 3 have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? 4 I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. Even so then at 5 this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. But if it is by grace, it 6 is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. What then? That which Israel seeketh for, 7 that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened: according as it is writ- 8 ten, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. And David saith, 9

Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. Well; by their unbelief they

20 were broken off, and thou standest by thy faith. Be not highminded, but fear: for if God spared not

21 the natural branches, neither will he spare thee. Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward

22 them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou

23 also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for 24 God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until 26 the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, 14 and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

³ Or, for decisions of doubts

But him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not ¹⁴ ³to doubtful disputations. One man hath faith to 3 eat all things: but he that is weak eateth herbs. Let 3 not him that eateth set at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that 4 judgest the ⁴servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. One 5 man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, 6 regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. For none of us liveth to himself, and 7 none dieth to himself. For whether we live, we 8 live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died, and lived 9 again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. But thou, why dost thou judge thy 10 brother? or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God. For it is written, 11

As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow,

⁵ Or, give praise

And every tongue shall ⁵confess to God. So then each one of us shall give account of himself 12 to God.

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: 13 but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth any thing to be unclean, to him it is un-15 clean. For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love. Destroy not with 16 thy meat him for whom Christ died. Let not then 17 your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and 18 peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved 19 of men. So then ¹let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify 20 one another. Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit 21 it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do 22 any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth². The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God.
 Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which 23 he ³approveth. But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin⁴.

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each one of us please his neighbour for that which himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them 4 that reproached thee fell upon me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort 5 of the scriptures we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ 6 Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

 7 Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ
 8 also received ⁵you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm

3 Salute Prisca and Aquila my fellow-workers in 4 Christ Jesus, who for my life laid down their own necks; unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all 5 the churches of the Gentiles: and salute the church that is in their house. Salute Epænetus my beloved,
 6 who is the firstfruits of Asia unto Christ. Salute
 7 Mary, who bestowed much labour on you. Salute Andronicus and ^{2 Or, Junia} Junias, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, 8 who also have been in Christ before me. Salute 9 Ampliatus my beloved in the Lord. Salute Urbanus our fellow-worker in Christ, and Stachys my 10 beloved. Salute Apelles the approved in Christ. Salute them which are of the household of Aristobulus. Salute Herodion my kinsman. Salute them of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.
 12 Salute Tryphæna and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute Persis the beloved, which laboured 13 much in the Lord. Salute Rufus the chosen in the 14 Lord, and his mother and mine. Salute Asynceritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren that are with them. Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the 16 saints that are with them. Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you.

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which ¹⁷ are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the ¹doctrine which ye learned: and turn away from them. For they that are such ¹⁸ serve not our Lord Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and fair speech they beguile the hearts of the innocent. For your obedience is come ¹⁹ abroad unto all men. I rejoyce therefore over you: but I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple unto that which is evil. And the God ²⁰ of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

⁴Now to him that is able to stablish you according ²⁵ing to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which hath been kept in silence through times eternal, but ²⁶now is manifested, and ⁵by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known unto all the nations unto obedience ⁶of faith; to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, ⁷to whom be the glory ⁸for ever. Amen.

God that I baptized none of you, save Crispus and Gaius; lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

For the word of the cross is to them that are perishing foolishness; but unto us which are being saved* it is the power of God. For it is written, 19

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,

And the prudence of the prudent will I reject†.

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the 20 disputer of this ¹world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For seeing that in the 21 wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the ²preaching to save them that believe. Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks ²³ seek after wisdom: but we preach ³Christ crucified, ²³ unto Jews a stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles foolishness; but unto ⁴them that are called, both Jews ²⁴ and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is ²⁵ wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

For ⁵behold your calling, brethren, how that not ²⁶ many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, ⁶are called: but God chose the foolish ²⁷ things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; and the base things of the ²⁸ world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea ⁷and the things that are not, that he might bring to nought the things that are: that no ²⁹ flesh should glory before God. But of him are ye ³⁰ in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, ⁸and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He ³¹

⁵ Or, age

- 4 Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of 2 Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Here, 3 moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be 3 found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be ¹judged of you, or of man's ²judge-4 ment: yea, I ³judge not mine own self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justi-5 fied: but he that ⁴judgeth me is the Lord. Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.
- 6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes;
 that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up 7 for the one against the other. For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost 8 thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have reigned* without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.
- 9 For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, ⁵and to angels†, and to 10 men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye 11 have glory, but we have dishonour. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwell-12 ingplace; and we toil, working with our own hands:
 being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we en-13 dure: being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the ⁶filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, 6 Or, refuse even until now.
- 14 I write not these things to shame you, but to ad-15 monish you as my beloved children. For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I be-16 gat you through the gospel. I beseech you there-17 fore, be ye imitators of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. Now some 18 are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and 19 I will know, not the word of them which are puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God is not 20 in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come 21 unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness*?

It is actually reported that there is fornication 5 among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's wife. And ¹ye are puffed up, and ²did not rather 2 mourn, that he that had done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, being 3 absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him that hath so wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, 4 ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto 5 Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord ³Jesus. Your 6 glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the 7 old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been 8 sacrificed, even Christ: wherefore let us ⁴keep the 9 feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

I wrote unto you in my epistle to have no com- 9 pany with fornicators; ⁵not altogether with the for- 10 nicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: but ⁶now I write unto you not 11 to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat. For what have I to do with 12 judging them that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within, whereas them that are without 13 God judgeth? Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

cause of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and 3 likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife 4 hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. Defraud ye not one 5 the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. But this I say by way of per- 6 mission*, not of commandment. ¹Yet I would that 7 all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is 8 good for them if they abide even as I. But if they 9 have not continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. But unto the married I 10 give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband (but and if she depart, 11 let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any 12 brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. And the 13 woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. For the unbelieving husband is sancti- 14 fied in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving de- 15 parteth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called ²us in peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, 16 whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each 17 man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all the churches. Was any man called 18 being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, 19 and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let each man abide 20 in that calling wherein he was called. Wast thou 21

- 23 free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye were bought with
- 24 a price; become not bondservants of men. Brethren, let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.
- 25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as one that
- 26 hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful†. I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress‡, namely, that it is good for a man
- 27 ²to be as he is. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek ²Gr. so to be. not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife?

flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ¹virgin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that giveth his own ¹virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ²dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she is happier if she abide as she is, after my judgement: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love ³edifieth. If any man thinketh that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth not yet as he ought to know; but if any man loveth God, the same is known of him*. Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God but one. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him. Howbeit in all men there is not that knowledge: but some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But meat will not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, ⁴are we the worse; nor, if we eat, ⁵are we the better. But take heed lest by any means this ⁶liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the weak. For if a man see thee which hast knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, ⁷be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? For ⁸through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. And thus, ⁹sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother to stumble.

 15 the gospel should live of the gospel. But I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man 16 should make my glorying void. For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I preach not 17 the gospel. For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have 18 a stewardship intrusted to me. What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the 19 full my right in the gospel. For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. And to the Jews I be- 20 came as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, 21 as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak I became weak, 22 that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. And 23

I do all things for the gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. Know ye not that they 24 which run in a ¹race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run, that ye may attain. And ev- 25 ery man that striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so 26 run, as not uncertainly; ²so ²fight I, as not beating the air: but I ³buffet my body, and bring it into 27 bondage: lest by any means, after that I have

For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, how ¹⁰ that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized ⁴unto 2

the same spiritual meat; and did all drink the same 4 spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them; and the rock was Christ. How- 5 beit with most of them God was not well pleased:
for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now 6 ⁵these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it 7 ished by the serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some 10 of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer.

14 Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak rael after the flesh: have not they which eat the 19 sacrifices communion with the altar? What say I then? that a thing sacrificed to idols is any thing, 20 or that an idol is any thing? But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to ⁵devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye ⁵Gr. demons.

21 should have communion with ⁵devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of ⁵devils: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of 22 the table of ⁵devils. Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in but the other's; for why is my liberty judged by 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever 32 ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or 33 to the church of God: even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the 11 profit of the many, that they may be saved. Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I deliv-3 ered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is

God. Every man praying or prophesying, having 4 his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But ev- 5 ery woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and 6 the same thing as if she were shaven. For if a 6 woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. For a man indeed ought not to 7 have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but 8 the woman of the man: for neither was the man 9 created for the woman; but the woman for the man:
 for this cause ought the woman to ¹have a sign of 10 authority* on her head, because of the angels. How 11 beit neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the 12 woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye ²in 13 yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled? Doth not even nature itself teach 14 you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour to him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a 15 glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we 16 have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, 17 that ye come together not for the better but for the 18 worse. For first of all, when ye come together ³in 18 the church, I hear that ⁴divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. For there must be also 19 ⁵heresies† among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. When there- 20 fore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: for in your eating each 21 one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What? have ye 22 not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and put them to shame that ⁷have 23 not? What shall I say to you? ⁸shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I received of the 23 Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he 24 brake it, and said, This is my body, which ⁹is for

- 12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. For in one Spirit were 13 we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one mem- 14 ber, but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am 15 not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. And if the ear shall say, Because 16 I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. If the whole body were 17 an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath 18 God set the members each one of them in the body, even as it pleased him. And if they were all one 19 member, where were the body? But now they are 20 many members, but one body. And the eye cannot 21 say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, 22 much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: and those 23 parts of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ¹bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; whereas our comely parts have no need: but 24 God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honour to that part which lacked; that there 25 should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And whether one member suffereth, all the members 26 suffer with it; or one member is ²honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of 27 Christ, and ³severally members thereof. And God 28 hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then ⁴miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, ⁵governments, divers kinds of tongues. be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth; ¹ beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all ¹ Or, covereth things, endureth all things. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy; and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken?

for ye will be speaking into the air. There are, it 10 may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and ¹no kind is without signification. If then I know 11 not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian ²unto me. So also ye, since ye are zeal- 12 ous of ³spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the edifying of the church. Wherefore let him that 13 speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret.
 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but 14 my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? 15 I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else if 16 thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of ⁴the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the 17 other is not ⁵edified. I thank God, I speak with 18 tongues more than you all: howbeit in the church 19
 I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in 20 malice be ye babes, but in mind be ⁶men. In the 21 law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not 22 to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. If therefore the whole 23 church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad? But if 24 all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is ⁷reproved by all, he is judged by all; the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and 25 so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is ⁸among you indeed.

What is it then, brethren? When ye come to- 26 gether, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. If 27 any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at 35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised?

 and with what manner of body do they come?
 36 Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is 37 not quickened, except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other 38 kind; but God giveth it a body even as it pleased 39 him, and to each seed a body of its own. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of 40 birds, and another of fishes. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is an-41 other. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars;
 for one star differeth from another star in glory.
 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown 43 in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in 44 weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural‡ body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is 45 a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. So also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.
 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that 47 which is natural‡; then that which is spiritual. The shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when ¹this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up ²in victory. O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law: but thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not ³vain in the Lord.

Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. And when I arrive, ⁴whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: and if it be meet for me to go also, they shall go with me. But I will come unto you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia; for I do pass through Macedonia; but with you it may be that I shall abide, or even winter, that ye may set me forward on my journey whithersoever I go. For I do not wish to see you now by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost; for a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do: let no man therefore despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come unto me: for I expect him with the brethren. But as touching Apollos the brother, I besought him much to come unto you with the brethren: and it was not at all ⁵his will to come now; but he will come when he shall have opportunity.

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all that ye do be done in love.

Now I beseech you, brethren (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to minister unto the saints), that ye also be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and labour—

SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will 1
 of God, and Timothy ¹our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in the whole of Achaia: Grace to you and peace 2 from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus 3
 Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may 4
 be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are com- 5 forted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through 6 Christ. But whether we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, 7 it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer:
 and our hope for you is stedfast; knowing that, as 8 ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort. For we would not have you ignorant, 9 brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, insomuch that we despaired even of life: ²yea, we ourselves have had the ³answer* of 10 death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who 11 delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver:

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-

14 ye will acknowledge unto the end: as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that

4 my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

But if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused 5 sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too punishment which was inflicted by ¹the many; so 7 that contrariwise ye should ²rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Where- 8 fore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him.

 For to this end also did I write, that I might know 9 the proof of you, ³whether ye are obedient in all gained over us by Satan: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of 12 Christ, and when a door was opened unto me in the Lord, I had no relief for my spirit, because I found 13 not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them,
 I went forth into Macedonia. *But thanks be unto 14
 God, which always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savour of his knowledge in every place. For we are a sweet 15 savour of Christ unto God, in them that are being saved, and in them that are perishing†; to the one a 16 savour from death unto death; to the other a savour from life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as the many, ⁵corrupting 17 the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? 3 or need we, as do some, epistles of commendation to you or from you? Ye are our epistle, written in 2 our hearts, known and read of all men; being made 3 manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in tables that are hearts of flesh. And such confidence have we 4 through Christ to God-ward: not that we are suffi- 5 cient of ourselves, to account any thing as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also 6 made us sufficient as ministers of a new ⁶covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter kill- 6

Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward 16 man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is for 17 the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; while we look not 18 at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that if the earthly house of our ⁸tab- 5 a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heav-

 great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

For even when we were come into Macedonia, our 5

- 6 side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, 7 comforted us by the ¹coming of Titus; and not by his ¹coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though^{*} I did regret; ²for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though
 9 but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly 10 sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance ³unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold, this
 11 selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In every thing ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. So although I wrote
 12 unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest
 13 unto you in the sight of God. Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his 14 spirit hath been refreshed by you all. For if in any thing I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which I made before 15 Titus, was found to be truth. And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear 16 and trembling ye received him. I rejoice that in every thing I am of good courage concerning you.
 8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches
 2 of Macedonia; how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty 3 abounded unto the riches of their ⁴liberality. For ⁴according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, be-grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the saints: and this, not as we had hoped, but first they 5 gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God. Insomuch that we exhorted Titus, that 6 as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace also. But as ye abound 7 in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak not by 8 way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.

 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. And herein I give my judgement: for 10 this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. But now complete the doing also; that as 11 there was the readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. For if the read- 12 iness is there, it is acceptable according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not 13 this, that others may be eased, and ye distressed: but 14 by equality; your abundance being a supply at this present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality: as it is written, He that gathered 15 much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

But thanks be to God, which putteth the same 16 earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. For in- 17 deed he accepted our exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. And we have sent together with him the 18 brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through all the churches; and not only so, but who was also 19 appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to shew our readiness: avoid- 20 ing this, that any man should blame us in the mat- ter of this bounty which is ministered by us: for we 21 take thought for things honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And 22 we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. Whether any inquire about 23 sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteouserality, which worketh through us thanksgiving to 12 God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanksgivings 13 unto God; seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the ⁹liberality of your contribution unto them 14 and unto all; while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of 15 the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Now I Paul myself intreat you by the meekness 10
 and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: yea, I beseech you, that I may 2
 not when present shew courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against some, which count of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war ac- 3 cording to the flesh (for the weapons of our warfare 4 are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the casting down of strong holds); casting down ¹imag- 5 inations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought 6 into captivity to the obedience of Christ; and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be fulfilled. ²Ye look at the things 7 that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also are we. For though I should glory somewhat 8 abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: that I may 9 not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.
 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; 10 but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account. Let such a one reckon this, that, what 11 we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. For we 12 are not bold ³to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. But we will not glory beyond our 13 measure, but according to the measure of the ⁴province which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves 14 overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for we ⁵came even as far as unto you in the gospel of Christ: not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in 15 other men's labours; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be magnified in you according to our ⁴province unto further abundance, so as 16 to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's ⁴province in regard of things ready to our hand. But he that 17 glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that 18 commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

For I am jealous over you with ² Gr. a jealousy of God. a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your ³ Gr. thoughts. minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with him. For I reckon that I am not a whit behind ⁴ Or, those preeminent apostles the very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in every thing we have made it manifest among all men to you-ward. Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God for nought? I robbed other churches, taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; and when I was present with you and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in every thing I kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of Achaia. Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off ⁵ Gr. the occasion of them. occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth himself into an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
- 16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye bear with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinso-ever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Is- 22 raelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham?

so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as 23 one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times re- 24 ceived I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten 25 with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; in 26 journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my ¹countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watchings often, 27 in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. ²Beside those things that are without, 28 there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not 29 weak? who is made to stumble, and I burn not? If 30
I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of the 31 Lord Jesus, he who is blessed ³for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In Damascus the governor un- 32 der Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order to take me: and through a window 33 was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

⁴I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; 12
but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether 2 in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the third heaven. And I know such a man 3 (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into 4 Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. On behalf of such a 5 one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my weaknesses. For if I should desire 6 to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness 7

- exalted overmuch, there was given to me a ¹thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ may ²rest upon me. Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.
- 11 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind ³the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and ⁴mighty works. For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.
- 14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
- 15 And I will most gladly spend and be ⁵spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not by the same Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?
- 19 ⁶Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, ⁷tumults: lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ 3 that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak, but is powerful in you: for he was crucified through 4 weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God.
For we also are weak ³in him, but we shall live with him through the power of God toward you. Try 5 your own selves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be reprobate. But I hope that ye shall know that we 6 are not reprobate. Now we pray to God that ye do 7 no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honourable, ⁴though we be as reprobate. For we can do nothing against the 8 truth, but for the truth. For we rejoice, when we are 9 weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your perfecting. For this cause I write these things 10 while absent, that I may not when present deal sharply, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.
Finally, brethren, ⁵farewell. Be perfected; be 11 comforted; be of the same mind; live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

- 1 PAUL, an apostle (not from men, neither through not be a 7servant of Christ. 7 Gr. bondservant.

11 For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after 12 man. For neither did I receive it from 1man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of 13 Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and made havock of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion 14 beyond many of mine own age ¹among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them 17 which were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem 18 to ²visit Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. But other of the apostles saw I none, ³save James 19 the Lord's brother. Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. Then 21 I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. And 22 I was still unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were in Christ: but they only heard 23 say, He that once persecuted us now preacheth the faith of which he once made havock; and they glorified God in me.

Then ⁴after the space of fourteen years I went up 2 again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. And I went up by revelation; and I laid 2 before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before them who ⁵were of repute, lest by any means I should be running, or had run, in vain. But not even Titus who was 3 with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: ⁶and that because of the false brethren 4 privily brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave 5 place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But from those who ⁵were reputed to be 6 somewhat (⁷whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: but contrariwise, when they saw that I had 7 been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the gospel of the circumcision (for he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto 8

- 9 the Gentiles); and when they perceived the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they who ¹were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; only they would that we should remember the poor; which very thing I was also zealous to do.
- 11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing them that were of the circumcision. And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? We being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, yet knowing that a man is not justified by ²the works of the law, ³save* through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? God forbid. For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor.
- 19 For I through ⁴the law died unto ⁴the law, that I might live unto God. I have been crucified with Christ; ⁵yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.
- 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through ⁴the law, then Christ died for nought.

⁸ Gr. nations. the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations be blessed. So then they 9 which be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. For as many as are of ⁵the works of the law 10 are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one which continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. Now 11 ⁹ Gr. in. that no man is justified ⁹by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; and the law is not of faith; but, He that do- 12 eth them shall live in them. Christ redeemed us 13 from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: that upon the Gentiles might 14 come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: 15
¹⁰ Or, testament Though it be but a man's ¹⁰covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham were the prom- 16 ises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Now this I say; A ¹⁰covenant con- 17 firmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect.
 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more 18 of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. What then is the law? It was added 19 because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.
 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God 20 is one. Is the law then against the promises of 21 God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would

22 have been of the law. Howbeit the scripture hath shut up* all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before ¹faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. So that the law hath been† our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor. For ye are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for ye all are one man in Christ Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; but is under guardians and stewards until the term appointed of the father. So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the ²rudiments of the world: but when the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, that he might redeem them which were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

8 Howbeit at that time, not knowing God, ye were in bondage to them which by nature are no gods: but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be known of God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly ²rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage over again? Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labour upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, brethren, be as I am, for I am as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the 13 For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, 14 but through love be servants one to another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this;

 15 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
 16 But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not 17 fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye 18 may not do the things that ye would. But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these,

Brethren, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass*, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. 10 purposed in him unto a dispensation of the fulness of the ⁵times, to sum up all things in Christ, the ⁶things ⁵in the heavens, and the things upon the ⁶earth; in him, I say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the 12 counsel of his will; to the end that we should be unto the praise of his glory, we who ⁷had before the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of wisdom and rev-

 is the hope of his calling, what the riches of the disobedience; among whom we also all once lived 3 in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh wrath, even as the rest:—but God, being rich in 4 mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead through our trespasses, 5 quickened us together ⁶with Christ (by grace have ye been saved), and raised us up with him, and 6 made us to sit with him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might 7

 13 having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are 11 And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; 12 and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

 13 for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, 14 unto the building up of the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of 15 the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a full-grown man, 16 unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we may be no longer children, 17 tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, 18 by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; but ¹speaking truth in love, 19 may grow up in all things into him, which is the head, even Christ;

 23 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, 24 in the vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, 25 alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, 26 because of the hardening of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves up 27 to lasciviousness, ³to work all uncleanness with ⁴greediness. But ye did not so learn Christ;
 28 if so be that ye heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus:
 29 that ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, 30 which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 31 and put on the new man, ⁵which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.
 32 Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbour:
 33 for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your ⁶wrath:
 34 neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, 35 working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need.
 36 Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for edifying as the need may be,
 37 that it may give grace to them that hear. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,

But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them; for ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as children of light (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even ³reprove them; for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of.  Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: the one* do it of love, knowing that I am set for 16
 the defence of the gospel: but the other† proclaim 17 Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in my bonds. What then? only 18 that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce. For I know that this shall turn to my 19 salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my ear- 20 nest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. For to me to 21 live is Christ, and to die is gain. ¹But if to live in 22 the flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work‡, then what I shall choose ²I wot not. But I am in a 23 strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for it is very far better: yet to 24 abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake.
 And having this confidence, I know that I shall 25 abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy ⁴in the faith; that your glorying may abound 26 in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. Only ⁵let your manner of life be worthy of 27 the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving ⁶for 28
 the faith of the gospel; and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; because to you it hath been granted in 29 the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer in his behalf: having the same con- 30

But I counted it necessary to 25 send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your ¹messenger and minister to my need; since he longed ²after you all, 26 and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: 27 but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. THE
FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father; knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election, ¹how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the ²Holy Ghost, and in much ³assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed ourselves toward you for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the ²Holy Ghost; so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivereth us from the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entering in unto you, that it hath not been found vain: but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God in much conflict. For our exhortation is not of error, 3 nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but even as we 4 have been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God which proveth our hearts. For neither at any time 5 were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, God is witness; nor 6 seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others, when we might have ¹been burdensome*, as apostles of Christ. But we were ²gentle in the 7 midst of you, as when a nurse cherisheth her own children: even so, being affectionately desirous of 8 you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, be- 9 cause ye were become very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. Ye are 10 witnesses, and God also, how holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: as ye know how we dealt with each 11 one of you, as a father with his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, and testifying, to the end that ye should walk worthily of God, 12 who ³calleth you into his own kingdom and glory.

And for this cause we also thank God without 13 ceasing, that, when ye received from us ⁴the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that believe. For ye, brethren, became imitators of the 14 churches of God which are in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, even as they did of the Jews; who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, 15 and drave out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; forbidding us to speak to the Gen- 16 tiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins alway: but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ⁵a 17 short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great desire: because we would fain have come unto 18 you, I Paul once and again; and Satan hindered us.

cleanness, but in sanctification. Therefore he that 8 rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

But concerning love of the brethren ye have no 9 need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another; for indeed ye do 10
it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia.
But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more need of nothing.

But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, 13 concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if 14 we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so

But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ⁵ ye have no need that aught be written unto you.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the 1 church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; Grace to you and peace 2 from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We are bound to give thanks to God alway for 3
you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; so that we 4 ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; which is a 5 manifest token of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: if so be 6 that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, and to you that 7 are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that 8 know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus: who shall suffer punishment, 9
even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he shall come 10 to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our testimony unto you was believed) in that day. To which end 11 we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every power; that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 2 Now we beseech you, brethren, ¹touching the ²coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gather-2 ing together unto him; to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is now present*; 3 let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man 4 of ³sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that op-poseth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or ⁴that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the 5 ⁵temple of God, setting himself forth as God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I 6 told you these things? And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be reveal-7 ed in his own season. For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: ⁶only there is one that re-straineth now, until he be taken out of the way.
 8 And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord ⁷Jesus shall ⁸slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of 9 his ²coming; even he, whose ²coming is according to the working of Satan with all ⁹power and signs and 10 lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing†; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might 11 be saved. And for this cause God sendeth them a 12 working of error, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
 13 But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God chose you ¹⁰from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and ¹¹belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the 15 obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.
 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort 17 and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

 Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with

TO TIMOTHY.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus
2 our hope; unto Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, the which minister questionings, rather than a ¹dispensation of 5 God which is in faith; so do I now. But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and faith unfeigned: from which things some having ²swerved have turned aside unto vain

8 they confidently affirm. But we know that the law 9 is good, if a man use it lawfully, as knowing this,

that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for ³murderers of fa-ingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, 15 that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief: howbeit for this cause 16
I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an en-sample of them which should hereafter* believe on him unto eternal life. Now unto the King ¹eternal, 17

3 Or, led the way to thee

This charge I commit unto thee, my child Timo- 18 thy, according to the prophecies which ³went before on thee†, that by them thou mayest war the good warfare; holding faith and a good conscience; which 19 some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning the faith: of whom is Hymenæus and 20 Alexander; whom I delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

4 Gr. to make sup-plications, &c.

I exhort therefore, first of all, ⁴that supplications, 2 prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings and all that are in high place; 2 that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all god-liness and gravity. This is good and acceptable in 3 the sight of God our Saviour; who willetb that all 4 men should be saved‡, and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, one mediator also 5 between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all; the testimony 6 in quietness with all subjection. But I permit not 12 a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. For Adam was first formed, 13

- 3 ²Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a ³bishop, he desireth a good work. The ³bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to ³hospitality, apt to teach; ⁴no brawler, no striker; but ⁴gentle, not contentious, no lover of money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in ⁵subjection with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take ⁶care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the ⁵condemnation of the devil. ⁵ Gr. judgement.
- 7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and the ⁸snare of the devil. Deacons in like manner must be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, ⁹not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of ¹⁰the faith in a pure conscience. Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling ¹³their children and their own houses well. For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
- 14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come ¹⁵unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know ⁶how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ⁷ground of the truth. And ⁷without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; ⁸He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, received up in glory. ⁸ The word God, in place of He who, rests on no sufficient ancient evidence. every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. 5

If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: but refuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself unto godliness: for bodily exercise is profitable ¹for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come. Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation. For to this end we labour and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brethren: the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. Honour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to shew piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is acceptable in the sight of God. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth. These things also command, that they may be without reproach. But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved 5 6 7 8 9 10

 they have waxed wanton against Christ, they desire word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent 5 name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

Thou art my Son,

This day have I begotten thee?

I will be to him a Father,

And he shall be to me a Son?

With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

And, 10

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth,

And the heavens are the works of thy hands:

They shall perish; but thou continuest: 11

And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up, 12

As a garment, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same,

And thy years shall not fail.

But of which of the angels hath he said at any time, 13

Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do 14 service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed 2 to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them. For if the word spoken through 2 angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salva- 3

For not unto angels did he subject 3 the world to 5

10 of God he should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, ¹in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ²author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying,

I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the ³congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again,

Behold, I and the children which God hath given me. Since then the children are sharers in ⁴flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he ⁵might bring to nought him that ⁶had the power of death, that is,

15 the devil; and ⁵might deliver all them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bond-

16 age. For verily not of angels doth he take hold,*

17 but he taketh hold of the seed of Abraham. Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be† a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to 18 make propitiation for the sins of the people. ⁷For ⁸in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of

2 our confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to him that ⁹appointed him, as also was Moses in all ¹⁰his

3 house. For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that ¹¹built the

4 house hath more honour than the house. For every house is ¹¹built by some one; but he that ¹¹built

5 all things is God. And Moses indeed was faithful in all ¹⁰his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken; 6 but Christ as a son, over ¹⁰his house; whose house ²They shall not enter into my rest.

Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in 12 any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God: but exhort one another 13 day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin:
3 Or, with for we are become partakers ³of Christ, if we hold 14 fast the beginning of our confidence firm unto the end: while it is said, 15

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

For who, when they heard, did provoke? nay, did 16 not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses?
And with whom was he displeased forty years? was 17 it not with them that sinned, whose ⁴carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they 18 should not enter into his rest, but to them that were disobedient? And we see that they were not able 19 to enter in because of unbelief.

4 Gr. limbo.

Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being 4 left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have come short of it. For indeed we 2 have had ⁵good tidings‡ preached unto us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because ⁶they were not united by faith with

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter thereinto, and they to whom ²the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of ³disobedience, he again defineth a certain day*, ³saying in David, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before said,

³ Or, the gospel was saying in David, after so long a time, as it hath been &c.

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.

8 For if ⁴Joshua had given them rest, he would not ⁴Gr. Jesua.
9 have spoken afterward of another day. There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of 10 God. For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also rested from his works, as God did from 11 his. Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall ⁵after the same example 12 of disobedience. For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the 13 thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

⁵ Or, into
Gr. in.

14 Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us
15 hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points
16 tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for 2 sins: who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is compassed with in-
3 firmity; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the 4 people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh the honour unto himself, but when 5 he is called of God, even as was Aaron. So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him,

Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

Who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him ¹from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the ²author of eternal salvation; named of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

Of ³whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again ⁴that some one teach you the rudiments of the ⁵first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of solid food. For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But solid food is for ⁶full-grown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Wherefore let us ⁷cease* to speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto ⁸perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, ⁹of the teaching of ¹⁰baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement. And this will we do, if God permit. For as touching those who were once enlightened ¹¹and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and ¹²tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; ¹³seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God: but if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is re-

 10 we thus speak: for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and 11 still do minister. And we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the ²fulness ² Or, full assurance 12 of hope even to the end: that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
- 13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he sware by himself, 14 saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And thus, having pa- 15 tiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs 16 the oath is final for confirmation. Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his coun- 17 sel, ³interposed with an oath: that by two immuta- ³ Gr. mediated.
 18 ble things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before 19 us ; which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and stedfast and entering into that which 20 is within the veil ; whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
- 7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the 2 slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace ; 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God). abideth a priest continually.
- 4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief 5 spoils. And they indeed of the sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: but he whose genealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of Abraham, and hath blessed him that hath the promises. But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. And here men that die receive tithes; but there one of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also ¹of the law. For he of whom these things are said ²belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an ³endless life. for it is witnessed of him,

Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath ⁴by him that saith ⁵of him,

The Lord sware and will not repent himself,

Thou art a priest for ever);

by so much also hath Jesus become the surety of a better ⁶covenant. And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing: but he, because he abideth for ever, ⁷hath his priesthood ⁸unchangeable. Wherefore also he is able to save ⁹to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher

8 ¹Now ²in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty
 2 in the heavens, a minister of ³the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man.
 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high
 4 priest also have somewhat to offer. Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who offer the gifts according to the law;
 5 who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is warned of God when he is about to 'make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the 6 pattern that was shewed thee in the mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ⁵cove-7 nant, which hath been enacted upon better promises.
 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then 8 would no place have been sought for a second. For finding fault* with them, he saith,

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord,

That I will ⁶make a new ⁵covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

9 Not according to the ⁵covenant that I made with their fathers

In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt;

For they continued not in my ⁵covenant,

And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the ⁵covenant that ⁷I will make with the house of Israel

After those days, saith the Lord;

I will put my laws into their mind,

And on their heart also will I write them:

And I will be to them a God,

And they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen,

And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord:

For all shall know me,

From the least to the greatest of them.

For I will be merciful to their iniquities, 12

And their sins will I remember no more.

In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the 13 first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

Now even the first covenant had ordinances of divine 9 service, and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world.

ed in once for all into the holy place, having ob- 12 tained eternal redemption. For if the blood of 13 goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling 13

them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the clean-14 ness of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit* offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse ¹your conscience from dead works to serve the living 15 God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new ²covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ²covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.
 16 For where a ²testament is, there must of necessity 17 ³be the death of him that made it. For a ²testament† is of force ⁴where there hath been death: ⁵for doth it ever avail while he that made it liveth?
 18 Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been ded-19 icated without blood. For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the 20 people, saying, This is the blood of the ²covenant 21 which God commanded to you-ward. Moreover the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he 22 sprinkled in like manner with the blood. And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.
 23 It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these;
 but the heavenly things themselves with better sacri-24 fices than these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true;
 but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face 25 of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often; as the high priest entereth into the holy place 26 year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the ⁶end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin ⁷by the sacri-27 fice of himself. And inasmuch as it is ⁸appointed unto men once to die, and after this cometh 28 judgement; so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

that, having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.

For yet a very little while, 37

He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.

But ¹my righteous one shall live by faith: 38

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

But we are not ²of them that shrink back unto 39 perdition; but of them that have faith unto the ³saving of the soul.

Now faith is ⁴the assurance of things hoped for*, 11

the ⁵proving of things not seen. For therein the ² elders had witness borne to them. By faith we un- 3 derstand that the ⁶worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made out of things which do appear. By faith Abel 4

Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, ⁷God bearing witness ⁸in respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet speaketh. By faith Enoch was translated that he 5 should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had been† well-pleasing unto God: and without faith it is impossible 6 to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a reward-er of them that seek after him. By faith Noah, be- 7 ing warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. By faith Abraham, when 8 he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he be- 9

- 13 These all died ¹in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were
- 14 strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to

- 23 faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's com-

- 27 the recompense of reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. By faith he not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace. And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were ¹tortured, not accepting ²their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, evil entreated (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. And these all, having had witness borne to them through their faith, received not the promise, God having ³provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which ⁴doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the ⁵author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against ⁷themselves*, that ye wax not weary, fainting in your souls. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,

For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, 11

 He that would love life,
 And see good days,
 Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
 And his lips that they speak no guile:
 11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good;
 Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
 12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
 And his ears unto their supplication:
 But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.
 13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous 14 of that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and fear not their fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your 15 hearts Christ as Lord: being ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, wherein 16 ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ. For 17 it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. Because 18 Christ also 'suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but quickened in the spirit; in which also he went and preached unto the 19 spirits in prison, which aforetime were disobedient, 20 when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, ²wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water: which 21 also ³after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the ⁴interrogation of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; who is on the right hand of God, having gone into 22 heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Forasmuch then as Christ suffered in the flesh, 4 arm ye yourselves also with the same ⁵mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased ⁶from sin; that ⁷ye no longer should live the rest of your time 2 in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past may suffice to have wrought 3 the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carous-ings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think 4 it strange that ye run not with them into the same ⁸excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give 5 account to him that is ready to judge the quick and ⁹the dead. For unto this end ⁹was the gospel preached 6 even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

But the end of all things is at hand: be ye there- 7

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF P E T E R.

- 1 ¹SIMON PETER, a ²servant and apostle of Jesus ³Christ, to them that have obtained ⁴a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of ⁵our God and 2 Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus ⁶our Lord; seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us ⁷by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of ⁸the divine nature, having escaped from ⁹the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; and in your knowledge ¹⁰temperance; and in your knowledge ¹¹temperance patience; and in your patience godliness; and in your godliness love of the brethren[†]; and in your love of the brethren love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 For he that lacketh these things is blind, ¹²seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never

Yea, I will give diligence that ¹⁵ at every time ye may be able after my ¹ decease to call these things to remembrance. For we did not ¹⁶ follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and ² coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. - Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example
 7 unto those that should live ungodly; and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life
 8 of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, ¹vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds):
 9 the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the day of judgement; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, selfwilled, they 11 tremble not to rail at ²dignities: whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgement against them before the Lord. But these, as creatures without reason, born ³mere animals ⁴to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their ⁵destroying back from the holy commandment delivered unto them. It has happened unto them according to the 22 true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write 3 unto you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; that ye should 2 remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: knowing 3 this first, that ¹in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own lusts, and 4 saying, Where is the promise of his ²coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this they wilfully forget, that there 5 were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and ³amidst water, by the word of God; by which means the world that then was, being over- 6 flowed with water, perished: but the heavens that 7 now are, and the earth, by the same word have been ⁴stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgement and destruction of ungodly men.

But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one 8 day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack 9 concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to re- 10 pentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the ⁵elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that 11 are therein shall be ⁶burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godli- 12 ness, looking for and ⁷earnestly desiring the ²com- ing of the day of God, by reason of which the heav- 13 ens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the ⁵ele- ments shall melt with fervent heat? But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these 14 things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and blameless in his sight. And ac- 15 count that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, ac-

- 7 Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which 8 ye heard. Again, a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light al-9 ready shineth. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now.
- 10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and 11 there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walk-eth in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.
- 12 I write unto you, my little children, because your 13 sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. ¹I have ¹Or, I wrote written unto you, little children, because ye know 14 the Father. ¹I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning.
¹I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, 15 and ye have overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is 16 not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the vainglory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
- 17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof:
but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.
- 18 Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the 19 last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest ²how that they all are not of ²Or, that not all are 20 us. And ye have an anointing from the Holy One, 21 ³and ye know all things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye 22 know it, and ⁴because no lie is of the truth. Who is ⁴Or, that the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ?

This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise which he promised ¹us, even the life eternal. These things have I written unto you concerning them that would lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, ²and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, ³ye abide in him. And now, ⁴*my* little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed ⁵before him at his ⁶coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ⁷ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God: and such we are. For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if ¹he shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him even as he is. And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Every one that doeth sin doeth also lawlessness: and sin is lawlessness. And ye know that he was manifested to ²take away sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither ³knoweth him. My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another: not as Cain was of the evil one, and 13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth you.

14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth

15 not abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer

17 ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how doth the love of God abide in him?

4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many

2 false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is

3 of God: and every spirit which ^{3 Some ancient authorities read annulleth Jesus.} confesseth not

¹ Or, in our case

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of 7
 God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth 8 not God; for God is love. Herein was the love of 9 God manifested ¹in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved 10 God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved 11 us, we also ought to love one another. No man 12 hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us: hereby know we that we abide in him, and 13 he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
 And we have beheld and bear witness that the Fa- 14 ther hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the 15 Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God.
 And we know and have believed the love which 16
 God hath ¹in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.
 Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may 17 have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, even so are we in this world. There is no 18 fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love, because he 19 first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth 20 his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, ²cannot love God whom he hath not seen. And this commandment have we 21 from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

² Many ancient authorities read
how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is 5 begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. Here- 2 by we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do his commandments. For this 3 is the love of God, that we keep his commandments:
 and his commandments are not grievous. For what- 4 soever is begotten of God overcometh the world:
 and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcometh the 5 world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, 6 even Jesus Christ; not ³with the water only, but ³with the water and ³with the blood. And it is the 7 Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the

- 8 truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three 9 agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness concerning his Son.
 10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the wit-
 11 ness that God hath borne concerning his Son. And the witness is this, that God gave unto us eternal 12 life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.
 13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that 14 believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:
 15 and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we 16 have asked of him. If any man see his brother ¹ sinning a sin not unto death, ¹ he shall ask, and God ¹ will give him life for them that sin not unto death. Or, he shall ask: and shall give him life, even to them &c.
 There is ² a sin unto death: not concerning this do I ² say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is ² a sin not unto death. Or, sin
 18 We know that whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keepeth 19 ³him*, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know ³ that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in the Or, himself
 20 evil one. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true 21 God, and eternal life. My little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

THE elder unto the elect lady* and her children, 1 whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all 2 they that know the truth; for the truth's sake which 3 abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever: Grace, 3 mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

I rejoyce greatly that I have found certain of thy 4 children walking in truth, even as we received com- 5 mandment from the Father. And now I beseech 5 thee, lady*, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the begin- 6 ning, that we love one another. And this is love, 6 that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the be- 7 ginning, that ye should walk in it. For many de- 7 ceivers are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. 8
This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to 8 yourselves, that ye lose not the things which ²we 8 have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward.
Whosoever ³goeth onward and abideth not in the 9 teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the 10 Son. If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth 10 not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: for he that giveth him 11 greeting partaketh in his evil works.

Having many things to write unto you, I would 12 not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face that your 13 joy may be fulfilled. The children of thine elect 13

And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, ³for ever and ever. And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come⁴. And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a great voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel.

Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation, and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands; and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These which are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and whence came they? And I say unto him, My lord, thou knowest.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne* shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8 And when he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels which stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

And he opened ² the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole ¹world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. hither, I will shew thee the judgement of the great harlot that sitteth upon many waters; with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her fornication. And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and ²decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations, ³even the unclean things of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name written, ⁴MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the ⁵martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and the ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, ⁶and to go into perdition. And they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written ⁷in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that he was, and is not, and ⁸shall come. Here is the ⁹mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: and ¹⁰they are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. And the beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goeth into perdition. And the ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. These have one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. These shall war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they also shall overcome that are with him, called and chosen and faithful.
